Expect questions on Literal Comprehension (Identifying main ideas, supporting details, and specific information), Inferential Comprehension (Drawing conclusions, understanding implications, and identifying the author's purpose and tone), Vocabulary in Context (Understanding the meaning of words and phrases within the context of the passage), Authors' Style and Techniques (Identifying literary devices and analyzing their effect), and Argumentative Essay (Presenting a well-structured argument with supporting evidence).
- Part B: Writing (50 marks) This section challenges your ability to communicate effectively in writing. You'll typically have a choice of writing tasks such as Descriptive Essay (Vividly portraying a scene, person, or event), Expository Essay (Explaining a topic clearly and concisely), Narrative Essay (Telling a story with a clear plot, characters, and setting), and Visual (A simple infographic showing the breakdown of Paper 1).
