vast majority of suicides an attempt does not just come out of the blue nor is it merely a violent reaction to a particular crisis or failure but is the culmination of a host of long standing issues he also looks at the thinking of a number of great writers who have attempted suicide and detailed their experiences such as david foster wallace yiyun li akutagawa nelly arcan and others at what the history of philosophy has to say both for and against suicide and at the experiences of those who have reached out to him across the years to share their own struggles the result combines memoir with critical inquiry to powerfully give voice to what for many has long been incomprehensible while showing those presently grappling with suicidal thoughts that they are not alone and that the desire to kill oneself like other self destructive desires is almost always temporary and avoidable
