many catholics today even those who attend mass regularly are confused about the church s teaching on moral issues like abortion premartial sex and homosexuality in an age where even some catholic theologians fail to uphold church teaching in areas like premartial sex and the presence of christ in the eucharist the catechism issue of the catholic church is a beacon on stormy seas the critical issues is this how can catholics in the pew understand and apply this massive new catechism that is meant to guide them into the twenty first century pope jhon paul ii clearly intends it to be used by all the members of the church and not simply as a resource for theologians and catechists but how can lay catholics begin the task of absorbing the message of this important work in the faith father hardon offers a popular guide written in question and answer format that provides a road map for those who want to fully embrace the teachings of the catholic church in concise and clear language father john hardon explains the what the why and the how of the cathecism for the popular reader what it s about why it s important and how to use it interested lay catholics pastors parents and catechists will find that father hardon s the faith is a sure guide to help them understand and apply their faith today and into the next century taoist philosophy deeply intertwined with the practice of tai chi chuan presents an approach that can be extremely valuable in addressing the contemporary challenges facing humanity in a world marked by social injustice environmental disasters and conflicts taoist teachings can offer a path of reflection balance and conscious action by cultivating individual and collective virtues through the practice of tai chi it is possible to contribute to a broader transformation of society and the way we live physical mental and spiritual benefits through the search for harmony balance between the body mind and energy in its broadest sense the three treasures of tai chi chuan jing qi and shen are interdependent and complement each other in a practice that aims to integrate body mind and spirit relating the three taoist treasures jing chi and shen to love faith and reason offers an enriching way to understand both taoist philosophy and the spiritual nature of humanity this trinity not only enriches interfaith dialogue but can also serve as a model for a more integrated and conscious spirituality that meets the needs of a world seeking peace understanding and harmony the idea that good represents balance while evil is associated with imbalance offers a rich perspective on human morality and ethics this view understands virtues as qualities that promote harmony understanding and the common good while vices are seen as behaviors or mindsets that generate conflict dehumanization and suffering to explore this relationship it is important to consider how virtues and vices affect our lives and societies
