originating as simple one or two room storefront operations cleveland s department stores grew as population and industry in the region boomed throughout the late 19th century and the first half of the 20th they moved into ever larger and elaborate structures in an attempt to woo the shopping dollars of blue collar and genteel clevelanders alike stores such as halle s higbee s may company bailey company sterling lindner davis and others both competed with and complemented one another all the while leaving an indelible mark on the culture of northeast ohio and beyond from the humble origins of halle's horse drawn delivery wagons and the elaborate design of higbee's on public square to christmas favorites like mr jingeling and the massive christmas tree at sterling lindner davis it is all here in crisp black and white images many of which have not been seen in print for decades arguing that a new atheism driven largely by darwinian objections to god's existence has limited debate to a scientific framework the atheist's primer reinstates the importance of philosophy in the debate about god's existence and in so doing recovers the distinguished philosophical tradition of atheism which dawkins and others have obscured beginning with the ancient greeks and culminating with hume michael palmer provides the philosophical framework on which scientific objections to theism are hung he explicates and comments on the thinking behind atheism discussing issues such as evil morality miracles and the motivations for belief although delving deeply into epistemological concerns emphasising the disheartening limitations of man's capacity for knowledge and our materialist dependencies palmer concludes on a positive note arguing alongside nietzsche marx and freud and many others that happiness and personal fulfilment are to be found in the very materialism that religious belief rejects an eloquent abridgment of his previous work the atheist's creed which was aimed at the educational market the atheist's primer is written in fluent and concise prose making it an accessible introduction for the general reader hurray for michael palmer is how michael martin the distinguished american philosopher greeted palmer's the atheist's primer litterworth 2012 atheism for beginners by providing a coursebook for schools and colleges differs from its predecessor in being designed specifically for teachers and their students yet although different in focus and format the intention remains the same to reinstate the importance of philosophy within the debate about god's existence and to act as a corrective to the largely darwinian criticisms levelled against religious belief by richard dawkins and the so called new atheists so in palmer's lively history of atheism extending from the ancient greeks to the present day we meet the enduring philosophical arguments against god and the great literature in which they are expressed atheism for beginners is user friendly and presumes no special grounding in philosophy throughout assistance is given by numerous aids to learning there are exercises marginal notes essay questions bibliographies and a glossary also provided are fourteen short biographies of famous atheists in these respects palmer follows the format first presented in his widely read moral problems of 1991 long established as a core text in the teaching of philosophy in atheism for beginners palmer covers the main atheistic arguments discussing issues such as creation morality evil miracles and the motivations of belief particular attention is paid to the work of hume marx nietzsche and freud with a special chapter devoted to the development of disproof atheism atheism is often criticized for being unduly pessimistic that without god there is nothing to look forward to no life after death no final righting of wrongs and no hope of salvation but this palmer argues is a slander against the atheistic outlook he concludes therefore on a positive note explaining that happiness and personal fulfilment are to be found in the very materialism that religious belief rejects
