this is a bright comedy by the famous english comic playwright about the extraordinary powers of ernie fraser a dreamer with a difference ernie has a vivid imagination and his thoughts have the disconcerting habit of turning into reality a treat to read and a joy to perform this second collection of alan ayckbourn s work is a cornucopia of some of his wonderfully inventive children s plays from the story of the teenage lucy in invisible friends who revives her childhood imaginary friend when things get difficult at home onto the storytellers in my very own story and this is where we came in and finally to young ernie who illucimates all sorts of wild and weird happenings with astonishing results intended for students and children taking part in speech and drama competitions and exams this book contains a range of audition speeches it includes female male and unisex speeches selected from both plays and children s books where relevant the author has indicated how a speech could be shortened for younger children there is also an introductory section with contributions from alan ayckbourn carol schroder teacher and examiner for the london academy of music and dramatic art richard carpenter tv writer and ed wilson director of the national youth theatre and senior casting directors for the rsc tv and film this edition has been freshly revised to include 10 new speeches from well known recent productions as well as children s books including harry potter a superb compilation amateur stage
