part i individual behaviour fundamentals of human behaviour, personality, perception, learning, behaviour modification, attitudes and values, motivation.
part ii group behaviour interpersonal behaviour and transactional analysis, group dynamics, power, politics, and status, leadership and influence, control, morale, and job satisfaction.
part iii overall behaviour nature and types of organisations, organisation and environment, nature and scope of organisational behaviour, organisational goals, organisational change, organisation development, organisational climate and culture, organisational conflict, organisational effectiveness.

organisational behaviour: engaging people and organisations uses an integrative model to teach a robust approach to OB by encompassing five levels of analysis: environment, individual, groups, leadership, and organisation, and demonstrating how each relates to one another. It teaches a contemporary approach to organisational behaviour that aims to understand rather than control human behaviour in organisations. Unique to this local edition is the inclusion of a critical perspective of organisational behaviour introduced through in-chapter features and the end-of-chapter case study. This complements courses that teach mainstream theory and advance through to critical examination of the subject area. This approach presents a side of management that reflects real-world experiences in the workplace by challenging the managerial perspective and discussing issues for employees.
