when steve sieberson and his wife unexpectedly found themselves in britain with an entire summer on their hands they readily agreed to avoid the usual tourist attractions opting instead for a road trip to the uk s far flung national parks as they set out however he envisioned bracing days of energetic hillwalking while she assumed they would relax in tearooms and cozy pubs seldom planning more than a few days in advance the two traversed the country in a rented vauxhall subjecting themselves to single track lanes diabolical signage and whimsical advice from locals they discovered a town called mirthless a place where cats eyes are removed and a vibrating cottage while at mealtimes they dove fearlessly into black pudding eton mess and barely recognizable enchiladas meanwhile after their initial attempts at hiking together nearly ended in disaster sieberson received dispensation to scramble alone to the highest point in each national park as long as he was quick about it and left plenty of time for more sedentary pursuits low mountains or high tea dishes up the charms and eccentricities of rural great britain as seen through the eyes of two americans who never really knew what was coming next
