this book theorizes auteur robert lepage s scenography based approach to adapting canonical texts lepage s technique is defined here as scenographic dramaturgy a process and product that de privileges dramatic text and relies instead on evocative visual performance and intercultural collaboration to re envision extant plays and operas following a detailed analysis of lepage s adaptive process and its place in the continuum of scenic writing and auteur theatre this book features four case studies charting the role of lepage s scenographic dramaturgy in re writing extant texts including shakespeare s tempest on huron wendat territory stravinsky s nightingale in a twenty seven ton pool and wagner s ring cycle via the infamous sixteen million dollar metropolitan opera production the final case study offers the first interrogation of lepage s twenty first century auto adaptations of his own seminal texts the dragons trilogy and needles opium though aimed at academic readers this book will also appeal to practitioners given its focus on performance making adaptation and intercultural collaboration what makes a particular performance great the greatest shows on earth offers an address that focuses sharply on theatre as performance as an event that can stir the blood the spirit and the brain like nothing else the result is a book about fourteen outstanding theatre events from a dozen countries in discrete production focused chapters work from peter brook s king lear through to the sydney olympics opening event is approached by a team of international scholars and practitioners each describing in print that which existed in time and space and most significantly within specific contexts what binds these chapters together is the conviction that whilst liveness disappears in a moment spectatorship can translate into documentation that adds something to a work s value even as so much else can never be captured in words in wrestling with ephemerality and memory the greatest shows on earth does more than make a case for what makes certain theatre great it foregrounds analysis with emotion and writing with the type of first person engagement that is usually edited out rather than invited in john freeman lectures in performance studies at curtin university perth western australia he has written extensively on theatre art pedagogy and research for numerous international journals newspapers magazines books government and funding agencies galleries festivals and consultancy panels the greatest shows on earth is his fifth book this gorgeous full colour book documents the dynamic creative arts company ex machina including robert lepage s dragon s trilogy
