1 timothy is one of the more controversial documents in the new testament for years critical scholars have rejected pauline authorship highlighted the apparent misogynistic quality of the text and argued against any coherence in the letter jeon takes a fresh look at the letter incorporating many recent advancements in nt scholarship in detail he demonstrates the macro and micro chiastic arrangement of the entire letter and explains how the presumed first century audience would have heard and responded to an oral performance of the letter in doing so jeon offers a fresh challenge to more popular ways of mis understanding the letter and points a way forward for appropriating the letter both in academia and in the church

this research work aims to present a solution to the problem of withering christian congregations present in modern christian churches by way of expounding the doctrine that jesus or his apostles promoted as displayed in the four canonical gospels the acts of the apostles or the new testament epistles this study presents factual information showing that the doctrine and arrangement of leaders that developed within the first century church may have been overlooked and lost by the wayside of history in favor of established traditions paul declared his purpose for visiting the church believers in rome was not to collect money or build houses of worship but so that their lives might manifest spiritual fruit following that example improving the spiritual quality of their people s lives should be the primary goal of all christian ministers the majority of this work will conduct a careful exegesis of selected passages from the new testament which focus on the leadership model utilized by the first century church this study presents in detail the stratified leadership model of the early times in such a fashion that any modern church might replicate its design
