excerpt from sword blades and poppy seed n 0 one expects a man to make a chair without first learning how but there is a popular impression that the poet is born not made and that his verses burst from his overflowing heart of them selves as a matter of fact the poet must learn his trade in the same manner and with the same painstaking care as the cabinet maker his heart may overflow with high thoughts and sparkling fancies but if he cannot convey them to his reader by means of the written word he has no claim to be considered a poet a workman may be pardoned therefore for spending a few moments to explain and describe the technique of his trade a work of beauty which cannot stand an intimate examination is a poor
