salvation is simple in nature wonderful in scope and dynamic in application the firm foundation of our redemption is based on bedrock truths which frame the content of the gospel of god in this two volume set of the gospel of god watchman nee presents the content of god s salvation including man s sin god s love grace and mercy the nature of grace the function of the law and god s righteousness the work of christ and the holy spirit eternal security and god s dealing with the believer s sins these messages are comprehensive ranging from man s sinful condition before salvation to his destiny in the coming age christian growth depends upon a dynamically operative faith and an essential ingredient for growing in christ is a clear understanding of the truth which supports this faith spoken in 1937 in shanghai china these messages effectively demonstrate watchman nee s burden to help all believers in the truth of god s salvation here is the good news of the gospels in the light of eugenia price s revealing dynamic insight as she searches for god s own answers for today s readers the familiar gospel words breathe with new life as she cuts through the superficialities of those who attempt to deemphasize the bible and draws up sharp guidelines which twentieth century christians can follow each of miss price s favorite gospel verses is included in the book followed by her reflections on them her exposition of the beloved king james passages rings with authenticity and poetic authority in the preface to learning to live from the gospels miss price writes you will find little or no information here concerning who wrote and who did not write the gospels as we know them you will find no scientific verification of the miracles not even a defense of them god s activities need no defense from us there are no scholarly apologetics no exegeses of the more obscure passages of scripture i do not know how to do any of this i find it enough to attempt to learn how to live by the passages i do understand having met christ when i was well along on my earthly journey what has held my interest from the beginning of my life with him has not been how to analyze or criticize the bible but how to learn to live from it i know of no better place to learn how to live than from the four provocative gospel accounts of the earthly life of the god who loved us enough to become one of us this book is intended as an aid to believers in developing a daily time of morning revival with the lord in his word at the same time it provides a limited review of the international chinese speaking conference held in anaheim california february 12 14 2016 the subject of the conference was the gospel through intimate contact with the lord in his word the believers can be constituted with life and truth and thereby equipped to prophesy in the meetings of the church unto the building up of the body of christ almost all the papers contained in this book were first presented at a conference held in the brisbane suburb of coorparoo august 10 14 1981 acknowledgements bibliography p 199 213 knowing the gospel the good news of jesus christ made simple is an inspirational and accessible bible based primer on jesus christ and his message and teaches how a reader in the twenty first century can achieve salvation through this most important first century figure this book answers simple question like what is the gospel who is god who is jesus what is a christian how to become saved what is salvation is there life after death in knowing the gospel readers are introduced the good news of the four gospels which tell of jesus identity and historical times through the lens of both old testament and new testament writings readers learn about sin and repentance through the story of the apostle paul who turned from persecuting jesus followers to following him himself while sin is inevitable readers will be heartened to learn that faith and trust in jesus will lead them to eternal life in him as christians the book concludes with a joyous invitation to salvation this books seeks to uncover the underlying message of the gospel of john through its four major themes and several sub themes the major themes discussed are the logos prologue the book of signs the book of glory and the epilogue the many sub themes interspersed throughout the gospel are the i am sayings faith and believing knowing and unknowing light and darkness seeing and blindness ascent and descent life and death abiding and discipleship bread and water love two extended allegories judgment and the world son on man son god and spirit paraclete and truth

24 ways to explain the gospel contains dozens of word pictures and illustrations that will help you communicate the gospel in ways everyone can understand why do i need to be saved from what these are common questions in today s society salvation can be a difficult concept to explain to a postmodern thinker fortunately god s word provides many ways of looking at our situation and at god s solution 14 panels fits inside most bibles 8 5 x 5 5 inches unfolds to 38 inches long the bible is full of illustrations that use common experiences such as gardening having debt a campfire or joining a family to explain what jesus accomplished on the cross in 24 ways to explain the gospel you will see 24 metaphors from the bible positive and negative examples and several illustrations that show how the positive negative examples can be explained a metaphor is a figure of speech in which a word or phrase compares or describes something for example a mighty fortress is our god mighty fortress is a metaphor to help to describe god below is an example from 24 ways to explain the gospel metaphor light jesus is the light that shines on our path toward god john 12 46 positive examples light jesus is the light of the world john 8

in this gospel john focused on jesus as the son of god throughout we find jesus speaking often of the relationship he enjoys with god the father to understand the life and times of jesus of nazareth we must each necessarily study all four gospels with its special emphasis on jesus christ son of god john s gospel is a wonderful choice to start a study of the bible every man woman and child will benefit from the lessons recorded by john no other book of the new testament has attracted as much attention from commentators as the fourth gospel it has stirred minds hearts and imaginations from christianity s earliest days in the gospel of john francis moloney unfolds the identifiable point of view of this unique gospel narrative and offers readers heirs to its rich and widely varied interpretative traditions relevance for their lives today the gospel of john s significance for christianity has been obvious from the time of irenaeus it was also fundamental in the emergence of christian theology especially in the trinitarian and christological debates that produced the great ecumenical councils from nicaea to chalcedon what sets this commentary on the fourth gospel apart from others is moloney s particular attention to the narrative design of the gospel story he traces the impact the johannine form of the jesus story has made on readers and explicates the way in which the author has told the story of jesus through this he demonstrates how the gospel story articulates a coherent theology christology and ecclesiology

salvation is simple in nature wonderful in scope and dynamic in application the firm foundation of our redemption is based on bedrock truths which frame the content of the gospel of god in this two volume set of the gospel of god watchman nee presents the content of god s salvation including man s sin god s love grace and mercy the nature of grace the function of the law and god s righteousness the work of christ and the holy spirit eternal security and god s dealing with the believer s sins these messages are comprehensive ranging from man s sinful condition before salvation to his destiny in the coming age christian growth depends upon a dynamically operative faith and an essential ingredient for growing in christ is a clear understanding of the truth which supports this faith spoken in 1937 in shanghai china these messages effectively demonstrate watchman nee s burden to help all believers in the truth of god s salvation

this volume based on seventy three sermons that consecutively cover matthew s gospel receives strength through the very roughness and directness of the word spoken under the inspiration of vast visible audiences while addressed to the impressionable hearts of men from first to last the various units in the exposition proceed on the assumption that it was the intention of the writer to set forth the person of our lord in relation to his kingly office so from the mystic account of his advent in human history through the record of the authority of his ethical enunciation the mercifulness of his method the majesty of his death and the glory of his resurrection to the ringing claim of all authority and the clarion command to disciple the nations we are ever in the presence of the king in an enthusiastic review the sunday school times observes it will prove a mine of treasure for teaching the sunday school lessons there is hardly a page from which some expression of great force does not strike out at the reader how can a christian brought up in the metropolis of sao paulo speak the gospel clearly to a buddhist raised in the mountains of tibet every missionary confronts the difficulty of cross cultural communication but missionaries from the third world bruce nicholls says must understand four cultures the bible s the western missionaries who first brought the gospel their own and the people s to whom they take the gospel recognizing this nicholls proposes that the gospel be contextualized that is presented in forms which are characteristic of the culture to which the gospel is taken the problem is to find the right cultural forms and thus keep the gospel message both clear and biblical nicholls deals with tough social theological and hermeneutical questions and proposes a direction for missions in the future bruce j nicholls formerly executive secretary of the world evangelical fellowship theological commission was a career missionary in india working in theological education and in pastoral ministry with the church of north india he was also editor of the evangelical review of theology for 18 years and is now editor of the asia bible commentary series
