this unique collection brings together nature poems by poet and writer wayne visser celebrating the diversity beauty and ever changing moods of our planet the anthology includes many old favourites like i think i was a tree once and a bug s life as well as brand new poems like monet s dream and the environmentalist then as we turned our faces to the moon our hands entwined our hearts in sync in tune we felt the fingers of the silken breeze and made our wishes on the falling leaves sanjay borude is a very sensitive poet he has taken a leaf as an image composed those poem each every poem remarks on nature as well as on human behaviour those poems are very balanced sanjay made them very soft classical hence they does not make any noisy comments he connected environment with human behaviour the hymn of leaves is a romantic enthusiastic classical poetic journey the collection of poems leaves falling upon the sky a reflection of a life so far invites the reader to examine ordinary life events such as mowing the lawn or peeling potatoes from a unique perspective estelle s way of seeing is as the title suggests like looking at autumn leaves drifting upward towards the sky rather than falling down to earth by looking at our shared experiences from the humorous morning weigh in depicted in the scale to the serious business of caring for loved ones in the sick child the writer shows that we can find meaning in the routines that make up a life in the reflections section the poem on ageing recalls the ageing ulysses embarking on a new quest as an optimistic view that old age can be a beginning rather than an end finally some thoughts on our shared covid isolation in my library fridge and acres of time demonstrate the variety and relevance of this reflection of a life so far the works mentioned are just an excerpt from over 50 pieces in this book that i hope you will find inspiring as well as fun to read offers verses by twenty five poets that highlight the special characteristics of autumn from the first signs of fall in september to the arrival of wintry weather
