is god changeable does he have different gospels for different people the story of redemption takes you behind the scenes in the struggle between god and satan it explains how the conflict began what the issues are and how the outcome is already assured it traces the theme of god s relationship with man from the garden of edan to the return of christ and beyond

excerpt from the story of redemption from paradise lost to paradise restored the wages of sin is death but the gift of god is eternal life through jesus christ our lord rom 6 23 redemption in a scripture sense and as contemplated in this volume is the giving of eternal life to a race of beings justly under sentence of eternal death by one man adam sin entered into the world and death by sin and so death passed upon all men for that all have sinned chapter 5 12 therefore all are by nature under condemnation of death so also redemption has been offered to every one for god so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life john 3 16 but this gift for man s redemption does not inure to the individual without an unqualified acceptance on plainly specified terms there must be belief in the son he that believeth on the son hath everlasting life and he that believeth not the son shall not see life but the wrath of god abideth on him verse 36 another condition is if we confess our sins he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness 1 john 1 9 then our short existence or probation in this world is a matter of life or death to all eternity about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast how do the old and new testaments relate to each other how do god s covenants work together to form a unified message it is easy to lose sight of the overarching message of scripture when working through its various passages we often forget that scripture is the narrative of god s divine interaction in human history that has an awful beginning and a glorious conclusion from start to finish the bible points to a single hero it shows us that god works through covenants and all the old and new testament covenants work together to accomplish a single objective the story of redemption is the most extraordinary story ever told it is a story of the gospel of jesus christ it is the story of the rise fall and restoration of the kingdom of god through the efforts of a single man this series of lessons is designed to provide a clear view for what has occurred to the detriment of creation by considering the impact of sin and death we will be able to recognize the value of life in christ

and blameless before him in love before genesis 1 god had the plan of redemption already formulated this means that god planned this in eternity past before in the beginning god existed and planned our redemption so when god was all that there was the history of redemption began that may be hard for us to fathom because we cannot think in terms of eternity unlike god we are constrained by time the fact remains that god planned our redemption through his son jesus christ before the world was even created it was not a second option it was the original plan from the start we may not understand it all but we can gain glimpses of it throughout the revealed word of god which is itself a story of redemption that spans from creation to re creation i e genesis 1 2 to revelation 21 22 some of you may already be jumping ahead of me and asking why would god create the world if he knew that one day he would have to redeem it could he not foresee what would go wrong and prevent that from happening so that creation would remain good and not need to be redeemed those questions are very important in our study of the history of redemption these questions will only be dealt with briefly and they will have to wait until later there is no need to get ahead of ourselves just yet but to satisfy the question for the time being i will give you the main reason which will be the only reason addressed in this particular study that god chose to create a world that he knew would fall into sin and need to be redeemed from it it is for his glory and i hope as we progress in our study that you will see how that statement is definitely true the study of the history of redemption has interested me for a long time now i have preached on the subject as an overview and taught on it in detail but i wanted more i wanted to go even more in depth on this subject and that is what i intend to do here before we begin i want to explain what we will be doing we are not going to cover every aspect of redemption in scripture because that would cover the whole bible for instance the book of hosea is full of rich illustrations of redemption but we will not cover it in this study so this is not an all inclusive look at redemption it is a study of the highlights it would take a volume much larger than this probably multiple volumes to truly give the history of redemption the study it deserves we will start with the creation account since god s plan came to fruition before the foundation of the world then it makes sense that we start at the creation event in our study of the history of redemption we will end with christ who is the completion of god s plan for redemption i hope you enjoy this study and i pray that god uses it to draw you closer to him
