set in his fictional wessex countryside in southwest england far from the madding crowd was thomas hardy's breakthrough work though it was first published anonymously in 1874 the quick and tremendous success of far from the madding crowd persuaded hardy to give up his first profession architecture to concentrate on writing fiction the story of the ill fated passions of the beautiful bathsheba everdene and her three suitors offers a spectacle of country life brimming with an energy and charm not customarily associated with hardy when farmer oak smiled the novel begins the corners of his mouth spread till they were within an unimportant distance of his ears the text is based on the authoritative wessex edition of 1912 revised and corrected by hardy himself this edition is the companion volume to the mobil masterpiece theatre wgbh television presentation broadcast on pbs it stars paloma baeza as bathsheba everdene nathaniel parker as gabriel oak nigel terry as mr boldwood and jonathan firth as frank troy adapted by philomena mcdonagh far from the madding crowd is directed by nick renton far from the madding crowd by thomas hardy called one of the greatest love stories of all time by the guardian in 2007 far from the madding crowd is a pastoral romance set in the rural southwest region of england when gabriel oak a shepherd faces a disastrous loss of his chance at building a farm of his own he seeks work in a nearby town with no luck as he travels to another hiring fair he helps save a mysterious farmer's estate from a dangerous fire after asking for work as a shepherd he discovers that he knows and once loved the owner the strong and beautiful bathsheba everdeen who has inherited her uncle's estate and is now wealthy gabriel goes to work for bathsheba and quietly and patiently serves her as both shepherd and advisor his love grows but will she acknowledge him far from the madding crowd is a beautiful story of love and friendship far from the madding crowd is a novel by 19th century english novelist thomas hardy published in 1874 the title is apt as the life of the book's heroine bathsheba everdene living in the quiet rural village of weatherbury is indeed disrupted by the madding crowd after shunning the first man to love her the shepherd gabriel oak she is courted by two others the lonely and repressed farmer boldwood and the charming but faithless sergeant troy the role of fate is clearly established with each twist and turn in the book being more luck than the choice of one of the characters the book is widely seen as hardy's first masterpiece far from the madding crowd novel by thomas hardy published serially and anonymously in 1874 in the cornhill magazine and published in book form under hardy's name the same year it was his first popular success the plot centres on bathsheba everdene a farm owner and her three suitors gabriel oak a generous shepherd sergeant troy a young handsome and inconsiderate soldier and william boldwood the owner of the neighbouring farm the contrasting relationships between bathsheba and her suitors provide a study of the many faces of love including honest heartfelt love and unscrupulous and manipulative adoration classic edition of thomas hardy's impassioned novel of courtship in rural life in thomas hardy's first major literary success independent and spirited bathsheba everdene has come to weatherbury to take up her position as a farmer on the largest estate in the area her bold presence draws three very different suitors the gentleman farmer boldwood the soldier seducer sergeant troy and the devoted shepherd gabriel oak each in contrasting ways unsettles her decisions and complicates her life and tragedy ensues threatening the stability of the whole community one of his first works set in the semi-fictional region of wessex hardy's novel of swift passion and slow courtship is imbued with his evocative descriptions of rural life and landscapes and with unflinching honesty about sexual relationships this edition based on hardy's original 1874 manuscript is the complete novel he never saw published and restores its full candor and innovation rosemarie morgan's introduction discusses the history of its publication as well as the biblical and classical allusions that permeate the novel far from the madding crowd were listed in the top 50 on the bbc's survey the big read far from the madding crowd 1874 is thomas hardy's fourth novel and his first major literary success it originally appeared anonymously as a monthly serial in cornhill magazine where it gained a wide readership the novel is the first to be set in hardy's fictional county of wessex in rural south west england it deals in themes of love honour and betrayal against a backdrop of the seemingly idyllic but often harsh realities of a farming community in victorian england it describes the farmer bathsheba everdene her life and relationships especially with her lonely neighbour william boldwood the faithful shepherd gabriel oak and the thriftless soldier sergeant troy on publication critical notices were plentiful and mostly positive hardy revised the text extensively for the 1895 edition and made further changes for the 1901 edition plot gabriel oak is a young shepherd with the savings of a frugal life and a loan he has leased and stocked a sheep farm he falls in love with a newcomer six years his junior bathsheba everdene a proud beauty who arrives to live with her aunt mrs hurst over time bathsheba and gabriel grow to like each other well enough and bathsheba even saves his life once however when he makes her an unadorned offer of marriage she refuses she values her independence too much and him too little feeling betrayed and embarrassed gabriel offers blunt protestations that only foster her haughtiness after a few days she moves to weatherbury a village some miles off when next they meet their circumstances have changed drastically an inexperienced new sheepdog drives gabriel's flock over a cliff ruining him after selling off everything of value he manages to settle all his debts but emerges penniless he seeks employment at a hiring fair in the town of casterbridge when he finds none he heads to another such fair in shottsford a town about ten miles from weatherbury on the way he happens upon a dangerous fire on a farm and leads the bystanders in putting it out when the veiled owner comes to thank him he asks if she needs a shepherd she uncovers her face and reveals herself to be none other than bathsheba she has recently inherited her uncle's estate and is now wealthy though somewhat uncomfortable she employs him thomas hardy (2 June 1840 – 11 January 1928) was an English novelist and poet a Victorian realist in the tradition of George Eliot he was influenced both in his novels and in his poetry by Romanticism especially William Wordsworth he was highly critical of much in Victorian society though Hardy focused more on a declining rural society while Hardy wrote poetry throughout his life and regarded himself primarily as a poet his first collection was not published until 1898 initially therefore he gained fame as the author of such novels as Far from the Madding Crowd (1874) The Mayor of Casterbridge (1886) Tess of the d'Urbervilles (1891) and Jude the Obscure (1895) during his lifetime Hardy's poetry was acclaimed by younger poets particularly the Georgians who viewed him as a mentor after his death his poems were lauded by Ezra Pound, W. H. Auden and Philip Larkin many of his novels concern tragic characters struggling against their passions and social circumstances and they are often set in the semi-fictional region of Wessex initially based on the medieval Anglo-Saxon kingdom Hardy's Wessex eventually came to include the counties of Dorset, Wiltshire, Somerset, Devon, Hampshire and much of Berkshire in southwest and south central England two of his novels Tess of the d'Urbervilles and Far from the Madding Crowd were listed in the top 50 on the BBC's survey The Big Read
