jazz bass excerpt the jazz bass or j bass was the second model of electric bass created by leo fender the bass is distinct from the precision bass in that its tone is brighter and richer in the midrange and treble with less emphasis on the fundamental harmonic because of this many bass players who want to be more forward in the mix including smaller bands such as power trios prefer the jazz bass the sound of the fender jazz bass has been fundamental in the development of signature sounds in certain musical genres such as funk disco reggae blues heavy metal and jazz fusion first introduced in 1960 as the deluxe model it was marketed as a stablemate to the jazzmaster guitar which was also marketed as a deluxe model in its own right it was renamed the jazz bass as fender felt that its redesigned neck narrower and more rounded than that of the precision bass would appeal more to jazz musicians the jazz bass has two single coil pickups with two pole pieces per string this gave the bass a stronger treble sound to compete with the rickenbacker bass which had been introduced in 1957 and was famously bright as well as having a slightly different less symmetrical and more
