there is considerable national variation in the professionalization and status of the management accountant although researchers from different countries have contributed to our knowledge about tasks and roles we have limited insights into the development education and socio cultural influences in different countries and surprisingly little is known about the local and national contexts in which these roles are learned and performed this book bridges this research gap using two complementary perspectives the first part explores management accountants in a range of different national contexts providing information about country specific historical developments and educational standards as well as specific roles and tasks the second part focusses on important global developments that will increasingly impact management accountants in the future such as sustainability the financial crisis technology and changing roles by combining local context with a global overview this insightful volume provides an agenda for future research which will be of great interest to scholars and advanced students in management accounting throughout the world the demo docs system of instruction replicates the classroom experience by providing more i get it moments outside of class we ve talked to tons of poa instructors and our editors have even taken the accounting course numerous times to figure out the following issue in this course that is consistent students understand or get it right after you do a problem in class but as soon as they leave class with each passing hour their ability to do the problems again and complete their homework diminishes to the point of them either having to come to office hours to get help or they just quit and get behind in the course on top of this you can end up getting behind in the course as well in order to keep everyone on track the demo docs system helps to recreate the i get it moments outside of class keeping both you and the students on track
