the contributors of this volume reflect on the writings of hans van der ven on the foundations of practical theology the empirical paradigm within practical theology and specific subdisciplines within practical theology especially religious education moral education church development and ministry for the past fifty years scholars in both pastoral and practical theology have attempted to recapture human religious experience and practice as essential sites for theological engagement redefining in the process what theology is how it is done and who does it in this book bonnie j miller mclemore shows how this trend in scholarship has led to an expanded subject matter alternative ways of knowing and richer terms for analysis in doing christian theology tracing more than two decades of her own search for a more inclusive discipline one that truly grapples with theology in the midst of life christian theology in practice shows not only where miller mclemore herself has traveled in the field but also how pastoral and practical theology has developed during this time looking forward miller mclemore calls on the academy and christian congregations to disrupt conventional theological boundaries and to acknowledge the multiplicity of shapes and places in which the wisdom of god appears this volume presents twelve original papers on the idea that moral objectivity is to be understood in terms of a suitably constructed social point of view that all can accept the contributors offer new perspectives some sympathetic and some critical on constructivist understandings kantian or otherwise of morality and reason how might practice theories and engagement with practice contribute to and advance theological study of religion and religious life and practices this volume explores and discusses how theological engagement with practice theoretically as well as empirically might profit from theories of practice developed in disciplines such as philosophy sociology education and organisational studies during the recent decades but so far scarcely employed within theology in part i the volume unfolds key components of practice theory especially as they have more recently been developed within sociological practice theories reflect on their significance and potential with regard to theology in part ii these perspectives are employed in the study of concrete religious practices established as well as experimental religious practices and collective as well as individual ones by unfolding connections between theology and practice theories and reflecting on practice theories analytical and theoretical potential for theological study of religion the book will be of interest for any scholar in the study of contemporary religion and practical theology this is a periodical publication devoted to original philosophical work on the foundations of ethics and includes study being carried out at the intersections of ethical theory with metaphysics epistemology philosophy of language and philosophy of mind this text fully explores the clinical nurse specialist s role as a direct provider of patient care as a researcher as a consultant and as an educator presents a comprehensive analysis that runs the gamut from history conceptualization and development to practice education evaluation and future directions for clinical specialization within the nursing profession winner of ajn book of the year award in previous edition
