how long shall we continue to struggle for a long while sin has been a common topic for consideration in christian circles from the confines of our hearts to the open pulpit we struggle with the concept we hang our heads in shame in our defeat where christ has given us total victory and convict ourselves of sins long atoned for are you uncertain about your salvation has your life been a continuous cycle of repentance and rededication are you struggling with immoral habits and addictions has your bible suddenly become another boring piece of literature this book beautifully reveals through the scripture what christ s finished work has accomplished for you how you can freely access the victory which is already yours in him and walk in complete freedom from sin christ did not die on the cross so we can become sinners in christ rather that we might become the righteousness of god in him the book also features how to overcome habits and addictions how to handle temptations how to effectively study and enjoy your bible what to do when you fall into temptations the difference between sin as a nature and sin as an action i salute your courage for the openness you have displayed for the benefit of others it is obvious in recent times that many christians are still struggling with the issue of sin and they just can t see a way out your book will open the eyes of many to the fact that as born again children of god we are free from the bondage of sin and are victorious over sin one major way of living a victorious life emphasized in your book is by renewing our minds with the word of god as recommended in the epistle of paul to the romans i recommend this book to all those that truly desire to experience freedom from the bondage of sin dr gloria a ayoola phd a confrontational blunt and to the point book that rebukes the bondage of sin with the authority of scripture an in depth study on the scriptures of god concerning the doctrines dangers and consequences of sin in this short book we will openly declare the truth of the gospel of christ a gospel that truly saves from sin as much of modern theology today assumes man will never be free from sin cannot be made perfect and will always sin we will rebuke those heretical anti gospel claims with the authority of god s almighty word indeed a man can be made free from sin can be made perfect and can walk in holiness because of the beloved blood of christ that cleanses all who repent if you are one of those folks who believe that we are born sinners original sin and that we will never be free from sin this is the book for you geoffrey w bromiley has abridged this monumental theological dictionary into a convenient one volume edition that is accessible to all readers in this book i point out that adam and eve were free to eat from any tree of the garden of eden including the forbidden tree freedom isn't really freedom if there aren't options choices every human being born into this world since the fall of the human race in genesis 3 has been born in the likeness of our fallen most ancient ancestors we are born sinners without a choice to not be sinners regardless of how our inborn sinful nature has manifested in our lives once we are born again children of god having accepted the atoning sacrifice of jesus christ on the cross making us righteous before god we now have a new nature new options new freedom the born again believer is more free than adam and eve had begun god through christ has set us free from sin not free to sin and yet even after we have come to salvation there seems to be more options to sin and ways to fall short of the glory of god than adam and eve could have dreamed in any tree of the garden i discuss what the bible means by our flesh soul and spirit i discuss our responsibilities as children of god still living in a fallen world contending with the fallen nature within our flesh i discuss why sin matters and why it does not i break down temptation and other ways the enemy harasses us even spending a little time discussing the enemy himself who is not the threat to you he wants you to believe him to be i will draw your focus from the defeated pathetic desperate enemy to your identity in christ because of christ and to much of what is true and what is available to you as a result sin and even satan himself are no match for the child of god armed with the knowledge of who you are in christ no matter what your struggles have been you can and will master your freedom to sin relevant to nonconformist christians this book explores the transformative and often overlooked implications of christ's teachings the author shows the possibility to still be surprised by the sayings of christ to rediscover the way as a liberating path toward freedom what christ said delivers an absorbing experience rich in unexpected turns and insights to ponder and meditate into taking the new testament text as the raw material the author builds a coherent picture of christ's way in which themes such as fire life light and consciousness take the central stage this work also offers a very personal contribution to scholarship a provocative hermeneutics focused on truth and freedom echoing the efforts of the apostles early christians the fathers and the mystics to reconcile the sayings of jesus with their own experience mystical and worldly infused with poetry and mysticism yet without compromising theological and intellectual rigor each chapter makes the reader a participant in explorations evocative of a christ-like apprehension of life and reality this inquiry reflects mental and emotional patterns that keep us bound at the same time providing a path through which the christian way could be inspiring in an original and sometimes radical manner first published in 1985 this volume is a collection of lectures and conference papers given during the william wilberforce 150th anniversary celebrations at the university of hull in 1983 for sin shall not have dominion over you for you are not under law but under grace romans 6 14 the heart will be ruled by something and we can be certain that sin s purpose is not to merely tempt people but to reign over their hearts considering this john owen helps us understand what it means for sin to have dominion and discern whether it has such a mastery over us more significantly owen points us to the power of grace to break sin s dominion and set up a dominion of its own read owen and learn to distinguish the rebellion of sin from the dominion of sin first published as a treatise of the dominion of sin and grace london 1688 series description interest in the puritans continues to grow but many people find reading these giants of the faith a bit unnerving this series seeks to overcome that barrier by presenting puritan books that are convenient in size and unintimidating in length each book is carefully edited with modern readers in mind smoothing out difficult language of a bygone era while retaining the meaning of the original authors books for the series are thoughtfully selected to provide some of the best counsel on important subjects that people continue to wrestle with today once rarely discussed in medical circles the relationship between spirituality and health has become an important topic in health care this change is evidenced in courses on religion and medicine taught in most medical schools articles in journals such as the new england journal of medicine and conferences being held all over the country yet much of the discussion of the role of religion and spirituality in health care keeps the critical distance of only being about spirituality a balm for gilead goes further offering a work of spirituality sulmasy moves between the poetic and the speculative addressing his subject in the tradition of great spiritual writers like augustine and bonaventure he draws from philosophical and theological sources specifically hebrew and christian scripture to illuminate how the art of healing is integrally tied to a sense of the divine and our ultimate interconnectedness health care professionals and anyone else involved with the care of the sick and dying will find this series of meditations both inspiring and instructive sulmasy addresses the spiritual malaise that physicians nurses and other health care workers experience in their professional lives and explores how these christian healers can be inspired to persevere in the care of the sick drawing on the parable of the prodigal son for instance sulmasy illustrates how some physicians have put financial gain ahead of their patients and how genuine spirituality might change their hearts he examines both enigmatic topics such as the relationship between sinfulness sickness and suffering and the spirituality of more routine topics such as preventive medicine in one especially stirring and poignant meditation he reflects on the spirituality of dying in the light of christian hope a balm for gilead interweaves prayer and reflection pointing the way to a twenty first century spirituality for health care professionals and their patients this book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of christian testimonies to divine suffering god's wounds hermeneutic of the christian symbol of divine suffering vol 2 evil and divine suffering the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from christian discourse about the nature and life of god this second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of god through the primary metaphor of love god is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of god with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago dei as love the second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion the suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage in divine grief god suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief in divine self sacrifice god suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human's infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in jesus of nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of jesus of nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice the liberating work of god calls the oppressed out of oppression and the oppressor out of oppressing the challenge in seeking a thorough liberation of oppressors is to help them understand their need for freedom and how to seek this freedom in their own contexts patrick oden provides a holistic biblical historical and theological analysis that diagnoses the underlying motivations and inclinations that lead to oppression part one addresses the context of oppression in which most participants in oppression do not actively seek to harm others but are caught up in systems that tend toward the diminishment of others part two examines the biblical and early christian response to oppression discovering a thread that avoids condemning participation in society generally while also cautioning the people of god about being co opted by society part three discusses how oppressors can withdraw from oppression through a constructive analysis of four contemporary theologians wolfgang pannenberg jürgen moltmann sarah coakley and jean vanier each of whom contributes to a widening vision of liberated and liberating life in which the once oppressed and former oppressor can find peace together in community
