a message to the black youth this is a compilation of individual essays written during the summer fall of 1992 the essays are designed to inspire thought within the black mind these writings are primarily targeted toward the black youth of this day of which i am a part of i am not a master of these teachings but these teachings i wish to master they say that my generation is not intelligent enough to read a book i say that they are wrong it is just that they are not writing about anything of interest that is relevant to our lives and when they do write something they have to write in the perfect king s english to impress their harvard professors here we are with a book in one hand and a dictionary in the other trying to understand what in the hell the author is talking about if you have got something to say just say it we are not impressed by your 27 letter words or your shakespearean style of writing the black youth of today don t give a damn about shakespeare this ain t no damn poetry contest wear are dealing with the life blood and salvation of our entire black nation if you want to reach the people you have to embrace us where we are and then take us where we need to go so these writings are from my generation and for my generation with respect and love if no one will teach love and guide us then we will teach love and guide ourselves peace long awaited much anticipated but let me ask the question have you been vaccinated because here comes an inoculation of truth guaranteed to immunize you niggativity proof niggativityis that deadly mental disease killing off the black community making us live like slaves even though we born free but exempt and liberated god will soon be god will soon be here comes that healing cupful of truth bitter to some but sweet to the true so pass the cup after you have drank the down and never again let evil hold the originals dow
