this is a book about living immortals in their own words people who are hundreds if not thousands of years old and living in our world today their commentaries come from a discussion board i have been using for a couple of years to market my earlier book physical immortality a history and how to guide there are over twelve distinct immortal personalities who posted on this board and they all have different perspectives on their lives as immortals one of the main characters on the site said this about the immortals i have met over 170 other immortals dating from 20 000 years old to 110 years old from around earth gods are in another league i have met 15 gods goddesses most are norce celtic gods there is at least 2000 of us out of your 7billion humans doing the exact same as me ie jobs names some still hide in mountans and forests do i believe all of this i do have some skepticism but even if it is not true it is a great story if true it is one of the greatest revelations of all time immortality and the existence of god reformulating the arguments of plato anselm and gödel defends a modern version of plato's argument for the immortality of the soul the self is essentially conscious and hence essentially living it is therefore deathless and cannot receive death but then it also cannot become something else nor can it be destroyed since that would be receiving death also so the self is immortal and immaterial the book then considers materialist theories of the mind and rejects them it formulates an argument from introspection which the author believes establishes substance dualism the argument for immortality and the ontological argument for the existence of god are parallel in that attempt to establish the existence of necessary beings since immortality makes sense within a theistic context the second half of the book defends a version of gödel's ontological argument for god's existence utilizing experience of the moral good and that mutual entailment of the attributes of god to argue that these attributes including necessary existence are logically coherent in the final chapter the author uses the central arguments in the book to support accounts of the afterlife from those who have had near death experiences i wrote these poems to inspire myself and others to help guide the blind into the light of truth and imagination leaving behind the truth of emotion happiness love hate fear and fantasy for all that may find my book a joy to read i wrote this book to free myself from limitations and all of the stress and pain that life brings inside this book lies tales of life from the reflection of a true american poet and still an ever present student life i hope you the readers enjoy my outlook on life and experience another plane of consciousness from a different angle of insight this is volume iii of eight in a collection on the philosophy of the mind and language originally published in 1925 this text looks at alternative theories of life and mind at the level of enlightened common sense the mind's knowledge of existents and the unconscious the following poetry is a compilation of universal truth and understanding that has related even more understanding to me years later even after i wrote them so i composed the book the same way it related to me and to others one poem might express an understanding of one part of yourself or life this year while the same poem might express another understanding of a whole new light of thought later in life one's development of mind and soul consciously in one's life is a continuous process of understanding and healing daily yet some poems here might just be an interesting related thought or perception to you in either way the reading of these poems is as it was written judgment free and open minded is to feel and understand life with an artistic and creative mindset for a positive and healing understanding for all of life well into the future of all things known and unknown for us all master james a patch
