this in depth study provides a timely assessment of how the foreign military and security policies of venezuela shape relations with the united states in the chavez era the growing importance of venezuela in the global oil market along with the controversial nature of its leadership provoke concern among some world powers especially the united states whose international policies have been heavily criticized by venezuelan president hugo chavez this critical look at american venezuelan relations presents perceptions held by each government of the other and examines the sources of tensions and points of confluence between the two countries global security watch venezuela traces the political relations between the united states and venezuela from the early roots based in pan americanism to the domestic and foreign policies of the chavez regime including petro diplomacy this book provides a serious examination of the allegations about venezuelan involvement in the drug trade terrorism and intervention the view that the unilateralism of the united states threatens world peace and the future of relations between the two countries offering a comparative case study of transitional justice processes in afghanistan and nepal this book critically evaluates the way the local is consulted in post conflict efforts toward peace and reconciliation it argues that there is a tendency in transitional justice efforts to contain the discussion of the local within religious and cultural parameters thus engaging only with a static local as interpreted by certain local stakeholders based on data collected through interviews and participant observation carried out in the civil societies of the respective countries this book brings attention to a dynamic local where societal norms evolve and realities on the ground are shaped by shifting power dynamics local hierarchies and inequalities between actors it suggests that the local must be understood as an inter subjective concept the meaning of which is not only an evolving and moving target but also dependent on who is consulted to interpret it to external actors this timely book engages with the divergent range of civil society voices and offers ways to move forward by including their concerns in the efforts to help impoverished war torn societies transition from a state of war to the conditions of peace
