Stories about the Virgin Mary began to appear in the second century, a spring of tradition that branched off from the mainstream teaching of the canonical gospels. This developed into a torrent of texts about Mary, her relationship with God, and her motherhood. This book translates and interprets such stories about Mary from the beginnings of Christianity to modern times. The narrative or story theology of these works shows her to be a partner with her son Jesus in the work of salvation. Early stories depict Mary as chosen from childhood, and she is shown at the Last Supper with other women. Medieval tales recount the miracles she works to cure both physical and moral failings. Stories of her appearances, Our Lady of Guadalupe (Mexico), Our Lady of Lourdes (France), and Our Lady of Fatima (Portugal) have been told and retold across the centuries. Today Mary is still seen as an icon of women's agency, celebrated in song, film, and art of every kind. This book uncovers her history and reveals her power through the life and message of this woman of faith.
