this book took some great thought to write but and it just had to be is paramount to everything that christianity stands for the work of jesus christ his death and resurrection is crucial to our faith the key factor is the oneness of christ in us this book highlights the factor of what christ really did for us to appease the wrath of god the choice is freewill the truth is we have been translated from darkness to light we are all sinners saved by the grace of god but we have to accept this gift to have eternal life however if you reject this gift then the wrath of god is on you my friend there were elements that were very personal that happened during my rebellious years in unbelief and it happens to many people it's sad but it does right trust me learn from my mistakes please repent really quick you don't know what the price is i talk about surrender being the first step to accepting jesus as lord and savior salvation is a onetime event if it's genuine but throughout your life it's an everyday deal the real one sometimes we ride the fence and think everything is ok but it's not please have intimacy with god he loves us very much the christian life ends when we're at the judgment seat of christ i hope no one appears at the great white throne judgment i covered many topics in this book to illustrate biblical concepts for you to grasp the truth this is very serious stuff in the eyes of god the purpose of this book is for you to make the right choice repent or not remember god believes in you you might be in that rebellious life but just surrender back to god the first biography of an american born korean woman doing what had to be done is on the surface the life story of dora yum kim but telling more than one woman's story author soo young chin offers more than an unusual glimpse at the shaping of a remarkable community activist in addition as she questions her subject introduces each chapter and reflects on how dora's story relates to her own experience as a korean american who immigrated to this country as an adult she carves around dora's compelling story and courageous life story a story of her own and one of all korean americans born in 1921 dora as she tells chin her story chronicles the shifting salience of gendered ethnic identity as she journeys through her life traveling through time and place she moves from san francisco's chinatown where koreans were a minority within a minority to suburban dewey boulevard where dora and her family attempt to integrate into mainstream america and where she becomes a social worker in the california state department of employment as the korean immigrant community grows in the late 1960s dora becomes deeply involved in community service she remembers teaching english to senior citizens and preparing them for their naturalization exams finding jobs for the younger koreans and founding a community center and meals program for seniors a detailed and inspiring lens through which to view korean american history dora's life journey echoes the changing spaces of the american social landscape and the grace and ease with which dora just does what has to be done shows us the importance of everyday acts in making a difference
