this book is intended for those who have only limited training or experience in teaching english as a foreign language and who want a general but practical introduction to the whole subject those who wish to do further reading on any aspect will find bibliographies giving details of more specialised books after each chapter the book is based on material which has been used successfully on teacher training courses at international house in london back cover

why has english language proficiency in japan remained so low in comparison to other asian countries has vietnam attempted to improve english language teaching because asean has adopted english as its working language why do english language teachers struggle with curriculum changes imposed by governments in order to make them competitive in the international community do professional development pd programs actually meet the needs of teachers this book addresses issues surrounding these questions by examining how the japanese and vietnamese governments have approached and defined the pd of english language teachers and how such pd programs have been delivered it further analyses the impact of policy changes on individual teachers and explores how pd can help teachers to implement such changes effectively at the micro level pd of language teachers or language teacher education is relatively new as a field of inquiry in applied linguistics by including case studies of japan and vietnam in the one volume this book embarks on the challenging task of demonstrating that pd is an essential element of the successful implementation of language policies in asia where world englishes have been shaped by distinct local contexts this timely volume opens a window on issues related to english language education in vietnam the authors consider that teacher quality is the key factor to be considered if the national english language curriculum outcomes are to be achievable aiming to shed light on key issues recently observed in the vietnamese landscape of english language education it examines the complexity of the institutionalization of the standardized english proficiency policy which has been in force since 2008 that policy uses the common european framework of references for languages cefr as the model to set the standards and levels of proficiency for teachers learners and state employees the book presents both the theoretical and practical aspects of the standardization movement in english language education the contents comprise a series of extended research based chapters written by experts of language in education policy and planning in and about vietnam from a range of perspectives including teachers english language curriculum developers teacher educators and researchers the rich coverage of the book includes current discussion on english language education in vietnam ranging from policy to practice making it highly relevant to english teachers teacher educators and scholars in vietnam and worldwide who aspire to broaden their horizons and professionalism this is a textbook on english language teaching methodology which was a task based communicative approach to deal with concepts and theories the book gives an up to date overview of elt most books stop at the structural syllabus the focus of this book is on classroom practice open ended enough to allow for interaction and discussions instead of discursive essays the book systematises information through charts check lists etc in this new edition there is a new chapter on teaching vocabulary a section on discovery techniques more on task based learning and learner training and a recognition of the change of perception about what communicative competence might be many of the categories of communicative activities have been rearranged and there is a more detailed account of teacher roles together with a section on the use of the mother tongue the sample lesson plan has been changed and the many examples from textbooks generally reflect the materials now in use rather than those which were current when the first edition came out english language teaching elt especially english as a second language esl and english as a foreign language efl has been witnessing unprecedented changes in curriculum teaching methodology and the application of learning theories this has created a demand for teachers who can teach english to learners of varied cultural socio economic and psychological backgrounds the book in its second edition continues to discuss the modern trends innovations as well as the difficulties and challenges in teaching and learning esl in a non native context the book with contributions from many experts each one specializing in a particular field from countries such as uk usa australia new zealand india nigeria sri lanka china and japan provides new methods strategies and application oriented solutions to overcome the problems in a practical way the book deals with all topics pertinent to english as a second language or english for the non native speakers and these are further reinforced by a large number of examples and quotations from different sources the new edition comes along with thoroughly improvised chapters on narrative inquiry for teacher development chapter 13 and mass media language attitudes and language interaction phenomena chapter 23 to provide an insight on the innovative approaches in teacher training and in classrooms and new approaches and changing language dimensions in the world of media and in general what distinguishes the text is its focus on modern innovations and use of technology in elt clt communicative language teaching postgraduate students of english teachers teacher trainees b ed m a education m ed and teacher educators who are concerned with teaching english as a second language esl should find this book immensely helpful a
