many teens are active in church youth programs yet drop out of church later in life and never return other young adults rest on the merits of their parents faith without ever experiencing their own relationship with jesus christ in this book the authors seek to help teenagers who have grown up in christian homes by reminding them of the blessings of growing up in a christian home warning them of some of the dangers they face providing practical suggestions for avoiding these dangers and urging them to think and live in a way that pleases god mcguffey s readers public school family prayers in the 1800s these were primary and successful strategies by which children learned to become christians sunday school was developed simply to support christian education at home and in school despite a radically changed culture many churches still rely on the nineteenth century model to encourage christian discipleship in growing up christian and the accompanying discussion guide c ellis nelson explores why these strategies are inadequate for the twenty first century and offers practical specific guidance for congregations who wish to nurture disciples of christ more effectively growing up spiritually is worth reading it will bring you into realms of unprecedented fellowship with god and his spirit whether in africa australia asia south america europe north america or the usa no christian can outgrow the need for spiritual growth if you and i think spiritual growth is only for those who just got born again yesterday then we have missed it entirely as long as god remains on the throne we can t outgrow him in every way hence the need for us to thirst and hunger for him and to grow more and more in christ jesus just because you are a prophet pastor teacher apostle or founder of some ministry that does not exempt you from spiritual growth however if you think you have arrived at your spirituality and you don t need to grow up just know you are standing on dangerous ground the bible says in 1 corinthians 10 12 therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall each time you think you know it all and you don t need to grow up anymore just know that is pride at work then we already know that proud people never last long in the race of life get this book you will scale greater heights of wisdom understanding knowledge and spiritual growth in christ jesus

if you are serious about being a disciple of jesus christ a discipleship group can help you achieve that goal jesus established this model by forming and leading the first discipleship group and it worked the men who emerged from that group took the gospel to the world and ultimately laid down their lives for christ growing up how to be a disciple who makes disciples offers a manual for making disciples addressing the what why where and how of discipleship roddy gallaty pastor of long hollow baptist church and founder and president of replicate ministries teaches you how to utilize d groups to grow your relationship with god how to defend your faith and how to guide others in their relationships with god perhaps of all the books in the new testament james most squarely focuses on results his pull no punches approach to spiritual maturity his preference for action over words makes his text the perfect backdrop for a study of how to grow in our faith beloved author and teacher warren wiersbe leads you through this practical book with advice on how to overcome temptation controlling the tongue effective prayer and how to practice what the bible teaches if you re going to make progress in these areas you will need a growing faith and dependence on christ because as james claims every good and perfect gift is from above now with study questions and updated foreword by ken baugh be mature makes the perfect guide through your study of james trust warren wiersbe s 40 years of experience to instruct you on important truths from god s word

we are all someone s children we are all god s creation but do we recognize it this book is for those of us who do recognize that we have all grown up in imperfect families but don t lose hope god can redeem anything we have gone through or will ever go through david newman reflects on what it means for christians to grow to be mature members of the body of christ with faith in a god who acts and themselves actively engaged in the church and the world

how can a christian home be dangerous when it is based on legalistic practices and demands strict compliance with no consideration for a child s feelings this highly controlled environment interferes with normal child development because it prevents children from learning how to think for themselves and to experience their emotions out of their fear and concern well meaning conservative christian parents and church leaders have used the cross as a club to scare children into the kingdom and motivate them to serve christ the focus is on avoiding the master list of sins not personal growth this approach is especially damaging to those with sensitive personalities who tend to take everything in life seriously the more outgoing self assured persons are able to blunt the scare tactics so they struggle differently from their sensitive siblings using the disc system the author describes various personality and behavioral styles to illustrate the differences with personal experiences and stories from damaged christians the author describes these dangers and uses psychological spiritual insights to explain how how individuals can work through these issues and retain their essential faith learn how christians can find answers that work without throwing god out of their lives growing up pentecostal is the true confession of an ultimate insider among pentecostal preachers kids only a person with j stephen conn's unique background could tell a story it is insightful at times uproariously funny and told with the sensitivity of a true believer stephen grew up as the third of twelve children in the home of one of america's most prominent pentecostal ministers this is a tale of his childhood antics and his spiritual odyssey he gives a disarmingly honest account of his struggle to come to terms with his own calling as he traveled throughout america as a teenage preacher this is an extraordinary and entertaining story of the pentecostal holiness movement during the mid twentieth century it gives a rare insight a human face to what has been the fastest growing branch of the christian religion for the past one hundred years have you ever planned for a trip you have to think about all sorts of things some have more to do in order to plan for a trip than others but in my house planning includes a number of things for me i have to plan out my itinerary so i know where i am going and what i am doing when i get there i have to plan for lodging medicine make sure i pack enough clothes think about what i might need and plan for what might happen like falling in the mud or ripping my pants i have to plan for how much it will cost me for food for lodging for gas spending cash and extras just in case of emergency i have to make sure the car has a check up in accordance with the weather i may need to plan for breaking down and so i may pack water extra insulation and i make a list of the emergency contact numbers i may have to use at work i have to get someone to cover for me and i leave emergency contact numbers in case i am needed if the family comes along then the list gets longer and longer if planning for a trip that might last a few days to a few weeks takes that much effort and time then doesn't it make sense to follow a plan for your life as a christian when jesus calls us to deny ourselves take up our cross daily and follow him there is some intentionality of thought and action that we must apply to our life when he calls us to make disciples and teach them everything he has taught us then that too implies a focus for our life that we must take into account to be a disciple is to be a student what are we to learn we are to learn why how and what to live for and then we are to live that out in our everyday life this process is what paul describes in ephesians 4:15 as growing up into him who is our head jesus christ it is the process of growing in faith hope and love too many christians and churches have not taken this process and endeavor seriously and because of it we have as we learn in 1 peter 1 corinthians and in the letter to the hebrews spiritual infants who have not grown up in essence they have failed to grasp and encounter the life god has prepared and promised for them they have also fallen short of being the faithful witnesses god has intended for us all to be in this life this book is for those churches and individuals who want some direction in taking the call to be transformed in our life with christ seriously i believe to take the initiative to be intentional about growing up in our salvation as 1 peter 2:2 states is to take advantage of the grace shown to us and to be faithful stewards of the salvation that was bought for us at such a great price
