laterally inverted the young boy had looked into the bathroom mirror perhaps a thousand times with casual confidence but today the reflection felt surprising and strangely alien it had to mean something thus began a quest that spanned his entire life filled with many kinds of adventures both external and internal his journey crossed continents and led him to explore the deepest places of the mind and heart it required keen observation and demanded ultimate honesty sometimes he stumbled other times he rejoiced ultimately his goal was to answer that age old question who am i and where do i fit into the scheme of things this question is everyone's question and it suggests that by polishing our own mirrors we might discover something wholly renewed i married a mystic one woman's leap of faith to discover a love that never ends it was a surprise to gutsy kirsten buxton when jesus appeared to her announcing he would be her guide at twenty seven years of age a serious bike accident had left her physically psychologically and emotionally devastated with no control over her life having had no previous relationship with jesus she began studying a course in miracles and developing trust in the spirit within miraculously world renowned teacher of a course in miracles david hoffmeister visited her hometown jesus told kirsten to trust this man completely in order to experience a relationship like no other her courageous acceptance of this guidance opened her heart and mind in ways she never could have imagined throughout this diary of radical self inquiry kirsten candidly exposes her fears projections and private thoughts whilst on an epic adventure of holy relationship with a tirelessly happy mystic a must read for those seeking to intimately apply non dual spiritual teachings in every aspect of daily experience in the bedroom the bathroom and even the supermarket this profound and often humorous account is literally a how to guide for awakening drawing on many years experience of working in victim support probation mediation and restorative practices marian liebmman uses pertinent case examples to illustrate how restorative justice can be used effectively to work with crime and its effects liebmman also examines how restorative justice is practised around the world a leading scholar sheds critical light on the seemingly revelatory events behind new religions and spiritual movements unseen presences apparitions hearing voices although some people would find such experiences to be distressing and seek clinical help others perceive them as transformative occasionally these unusual phenomena give rise to new spiritual paths or religious movements revelatory events provides fresh insights into what is perhaps the bedrock of all religious belief the claim that otherworldly powers are active in human affairs ann taves looks at mormonism alcoholics anonymous and a course in miracles three cases in which insiders claimed that a spiritual presence guided the emergence of a new spiritual path in the 1820s joseph smith jr reportedly translated the book of mormon from ancient gold plates unearthed with the help of an angel bill wilson cofounded aa after having an ecstatic experience while hospitalized for alcoholism in 1934 helen schucman scribed the words of an inner voice that she attributed to jesus which formed the basis of her 1976 best selling self study course in each case taves argues the sense of a guiding presence emerged through a complex creative interaction between a founding figure with unusual mental abilities and an initial set of collaborators who were drawn into the process by diverse motives of their own a major work of scholarship this compelling and accessible book traces the very human processes behind such events
