this is a book about space on a first level it reflects traditional japanese ideas of space against various items of western culture among these items are bakhtin s dialogicity wittgenstein s lebensform and virtual space or globalized space as representatives of the latest development of an alienated modern spatial experience some of the western concepts of space appear as negative counter examples to basho like japanese places others turn out to be compatible with the japanese idea of space on a second level the book attempts to synthesize by constantly transgressing the limits of a purely comparative activity a quantity which the author believes to be existent in japanese culture that is called the virtual be it kuki shûzô s hermeneutics of non foundation or his ontology of dream nishida kitarô s virtual definition of the body of state or kimura bin s notion of in between aida that is so closely associated with the virtual space of noh plays what all these conceptions have in common is that they aim to transcend a flat notion of reality by developing the virtual as a complex ontological unity
