herman selderhuis as editor of this volume has brought together a team of experts resulting in a unique approach since each chapter is co written by a catholic and a protestant author who have all integrated the latest research results each section begins with a brief historiographical overview the same time ecclesiastical events are always set within a greater framework of political social and cultural developments for which reason each author has taken the liberty to describe its own method the user will find in this book tables diagrams and illustrations also many source texts are integrated in the narration theses texts are intended to bring the described events and people closer to the reader and as it were to let them speak the words the name of the book as handbook of the church history of the netherlands immediately brings to mind three problematic complexes which are relevant to its user first there is the nature of a handbook that is intended to be a good tool but also has its limitations it stimulates and necessitates the use of further books second the area the netherlands is a plurality and that is also noticeable in its church history for each region town and village has its own church history third the history of the church for sure is the most important aspect but this history can only be understood if it is described in the context of political and social developments to anyone at all acquainted with the place which the dutch reformed church in london has occupied during the centuries it will not cause surprise to hear that i hesitated for a moment before accepting the invitation from its council to relate the history of the church on the occasion of its four hundredth anniversary not much time was left and the material was voluminous only few church communities possess such a wealth of written documents bearing on their past history or have been the centre to the same extent of so many varied activities however there were considerations on the other side which made me decide to undertake the work the extensive archives of the church are well arranged and well preserved the most important part the voluminous correspondence consisting mainly of letters addressed to the church council has been made available in a highly meritorious manner by j h hessels publication ecclisiae londinobatavae archivum only a small part of the often very detailed minutes of the council meetings has been published but these publications by dr a kuyper and dr a a van schelven cover two very important periods in the history of the church in addition there are the publications of the marnix society viz ruytinck s gheschiedenissen hi story and its sequels and the acta of the colloquia of the dutch church communities in england
