the hugely entertaining autobiography of one of the most popular and highly respected managers in the English football league the Sunday Times no 1 bestselling memoir from Harry Redknapp from kicking a ball as a kid under the street lamps of Poplar and standing on Highbury's North Bank with my dad to my first game at West Ham I was born head over heels in love with football it saved me and 50 years on that hasn't changed one bit I'd be lost without it Harry is the manager who has seen it all from a dismal 70s portakabin at Oxford City and training pitches with trees in the middle to the unbeatable highs of the Premiership lifting the FA Cup and taking on Real Madrid in the Champions League with his much loved no nonsense delivery Harry brings us a story filled with passion and humour that takes you right inside every drama of his career Harry finally tells the full story of all the controversial ups and downs the pain and heartache of his court case the england job his love for bobby moore his adventures at portsmouth with milan mandaric the southampton debacle tottenham and daniel levy and not forgetting his years at west ham or the challenges at his current club qpr it's the epic journey of one of the great managers and along the way the story of the british game itself over the last five decades in an era now dominated by foreign coaches harry is the last of an old fashioned breed of english football man one who has managed to move with the times and always come out fighting

final third the last word on our football heroes serves up another batch of funny absurd and jaw dropping tales discovered within more than 300 footballer autobiographies author john smith has pored over the memoirs of the great and the good as well as the not so good so you don't have to you're welcome final third paints an intimate picture of our favourite football figures using their own stories to show what makes them tick what unites and divides them and exactly what they are prepared to share with us they've seen things you wouldn't believe the eye opening stories include a defender deliberately driving a golf ball into jimmy hill's house a goalkeeper confronted by a witch doctor in his penalty area one football legend asking another to scale a church tower to stop the bells ringing a manager who was like catnip to the wives of his directors and the england captain who drifted down the thames it all adds up to a fun third volume of the definitive digest of the autobiographies of our football heroes

this is the first full length biography of ron greenwood west ham united's most successful trophy winning manager a man who was instrumental in the development of 1966 world cup winning heroes moore hurst and peters ron lacked the ruthlessness of his more feted contemporaries bill shankly and don revie with whom his trophy success did not compare but his west ham team of the mid 1960s had its own moments of heady triumph an fa cup win in 1964 the club s first a european cup winners cup victory in 1965 only the second european win by an english club and crucially they were always easy on the eye even in defeat then there was the little matter of supplying three team members to england s world cup victory in 1966 at a tournament in which their perfection of greenwood s near post cross ploy proved devastating after 16 years at west ham greenwood became england manager in 1977 and led them to the 1982 world cup an impeccable sportsman deep thinker and skilled communicator he was a noble servant to football harry redknapp is without doubt one of the most charismatic well respected managers in the premiership admired by home and rival supporters alike time and again he has worked wonders with limited budgets motivating his players to heights no one thought possible this is the story of a remarkable manager booked the gospel according to our football heroes is a funny fascinating digest of over 120 footballer autobiographies authors john smith and dan trelfer have forensically examined the life stories of legends hard cases cult heroes and one or two players they vaguely remember playing for portsmouth so you don t have to along the way they discovered answers to questions they never knew they needed to know which coach has a tattoo inked by mickey rourke which maverick witnessed his gaffer murder an animal in a team talk yes the revelations from this pandora s box may melt the reader s face like at the end of raiders of the lost ark but they also offer an insight into the strange world that footballers inhabit using their very own words what drives star players apart and what binds them together beyond an almost universal love of rod stewart booked investigates a unique world full of sex booze cash fights glory bitterness fame and incessant relentless banter
