a vintage shorts short story month selection with hardly any notice foolish and plain housekeeper johanna flees her employer and sets off to find the man she's fallen in love with little does she know that her correspondence with him has been a complete fabrication a cruel teenager's idea of a practical joke so who will johanna find when she steps off her train with the household furniture in tow alice munro is the universally celebrated master of the contemporary short story the chekhov of our time nowhere are her powers better on display than in this exquisitely crafted story exploring the wonderful and unexpected places where love or the illusion of it can lead this selection is the title story of munro s acclaimed collection hateship friendship courtship loveship marriage and the basis of the 2013 film hateship loveship an ebook short dalam kumpulan ceritanya kali ini alice munro mencapai level baru dalam kepenulisannya munro berhasil menciptakan narasi yang berputar dan berliku serupa kenangan menyulap karakter karakternya menjadi lebih tajam dan kontradiktif sebagaimana orang orang yang benar benar ada di sekitar kita seorang pembantu rumah tangga yang menanggalkan kebiasaan seumur hidupnya karena lelucon konyol seorang remaja seorang mahasiswi mengunjungi bibinya yang kasar dan konvensional hanya untuk mengetahui sebuah rahasia mengejutkan dan makna di balik semua itu seorang perayu akut menghadapi romansa dan segala keindahannya yang tak terduga di rumah pelayanan kesehatan milik istrinya hateship friendship courtship loveship marriage adalah salah satu karya terbaik munro sangat jeli tanpa ilusi dan amat manusiawi mizan bentang pustaka indonesia novel terjemahan kisah indonesia in these stories lives come into focus through single events or sudden memories which bring the past bubbling to the surface no one could possibly dispute munro s greatness daily mail the past as alice munro s characters discover is made up not only of what is remembered but also what isn t the past is there just out of the picture but if memories haven t been savoured recalled in the mind and boxed away it s as if they have never been until a moment when the pieces of the jigsaw re form suddenly sometimes pleasurable but more often painfully women look back at their young selves at first marriages made when they were naive and trusting at husbands and their difficult demanding little ways in a collection filled with both underlying heartbreak and hope winner of the nobel prize in literature winner of the man booker international prize 2009 as a short story writer alice munro has achieved high critical and popular regard in both her native canada and in the united states indeed munro has been adopted by the entire english speaking world as one of its own and her work has received many awards and honors in the u s she is roundly regarded as one of the best if not the best contemporary writers of the short story and one of the greatest living fiction writers here brad hooper takes readers through her fiction work by work discussing the themes forms techniques and styles she employs to make her work come alive munro has founded her own brand of the short story longer than traditionally practiced in the short story form and encompassing broader time frames her stories are primarily character studies that explore the impact of physical and mental isolation in adolescence middle age and into elder years hooper traces munro s evolving definition of the short story form and surveys the fiction in an effort to elucidate the works for newcomers and enthusiasts alike the awarding of the nobel prize in literature to the canadian writer alice munro in 2013 confirmed her position as a master of the short story form this book explores munro s work from a full range of critical perspectives focussing on three of her most popular and important published collections hateship friendship courtship loveship marriage 2001 runaway 2004 and her final collection dear life 2012 with chapters written by the world's leading critics of Munro's work the short story form and contemporary Canadian writing this book explores such themes as love and marriage sex fate gender and humor in her writings as well as her approaches to narrative form and autobiography in these three late collections Munro sharply articulates again and again the mysteries of being itself what in terms of Alice Munro's creative artistry and creative power allowed her to become the first and only short story writer the first and only Canadian and just the thirteenth woman in history to win the Nobel Prize in literature and exactly when during Munro's career did her artistry and power advance to ensure that she would earn such world wide renown the answers lie in studying the boldly innovative yet greatly under examined group of her four mid career breakthrough books our volume therefore provides a carefully orchestrated analysis of Munro's subtle yet potent handling of form technique and style both within individual stories and across these special collections reading Alice Munro's breakthrough books a suite in four voices not only addresses a significant vacancy in Munro criticism and by extension in all short story criticism but equally importantly offers an exciting new model for how criticism can be collectively written
