the sixteenth century was an age of reformation there was religious reformation as protestantism came to england scotland and even ireland bringing liberation chaos and bloodshed in its wake and there was political reformation as the tudor and stewart later stuart monarchs made their authority felt within and beyond their kingdoms more than any of their predecessors together these two reformations produced not only a new religion but a new politics absolutist yet pluralist populist yet law bound and a new society controlled fractured yet more widely engaged and empowered than ever before in
