a groundbreaking look at avant garde art and literature in the wake of the mexican revolution illustrating mexico city s importance as a major center for the development of modernism provided by publisher the first major study on the works of the mexican novelist angeles mastretta demonstrating the rich complexity and range of the author s fiction and essays the mexican novelist angeles mastretta b 1949 has only recently received serious critical attention largely because her work has been seen as popular and therefore inappropriate for academic study this first major work to be published on mastretta seeks to demonstrate the rich complexity and range of the author s fiction and essays in the tradition of post boom latin american women s writing mastretta s texts are motivated by a desire to speak primarily of the silenced experiences and voices of women two of her novels referential and testimonial in style can be placed within the mexican revolutionary novel tradition and explore the revolutionary period and its consequences in the light of female experiences and perspectives the hitherto unexplored themes of female sexuality and bodily erotics in mastretta s texts are also considered in this volume her feminist works avoid facile simplifications heterogeneous and dialogical they interweave the historical and the fictional the everyday and the fantastic the originality of mastretta s writing lies in its elusive postmodern ambiguities shimmering surfaces are often interrupted by unexpected depths and proliferating meanings cannot be fully circumscribed by critical analysis jane elizabeth lavery lectures in latin american studies at the university of kent este libro recoge algunas cuestiones con las que violeta núñez ha ido tramando sus recorridos docentes teorías pedagógicas y experiencias como enseñante el texto postula que inventar es transgredir y recurre al bricolaje para que cada ensamble fragmentos y objetos culturales y a la postproducción como actividad resultante de esa apropiación de elementos de la cultura plural dada la movilidad de los sujetos de la era digital y su atención dispersa en diversas fuentes simultáneas se trata de incorporar esas modalidades a los espacios de educación posibilitando que la atención dispersa se transforme en atención flotante desde esta perspectiva se plantea revisitar en clave contemporánea viejas teorías y experiencias pedagógicas desarchivarlas
