this book focuses on multicultural curriculum transformation in social students and civic education subject areas the discussion of each area outlines critical considerations for multicultural curriculum transformation for the area by grade level and then by eight organizing tools including content standards relationships with and among students and their families and evaluation of student learning and teaching effectiveness the volume is designed to speak with pk 12 teachers as colleagues in the multicultural curriculum transformation work readers are exposed to things to think about but also given curricular examples to work with or from in going about the actual concrete work of curriculum change this work supports pk 12 teachers to independently multiculturally adapt existing curriculum to create new multicultural curriculum differentiated by content areas and grade levels and by providing ample examples of what such multicultural transformed social studies and civic education curricula looks like in practice in an age of unprecedented corporate and political control over life inside of educational institutions this book provides a needed intervention to investigate how the economic and political elite use traditional artifacts in k 16 schools to perpetuate their interests at the expense of minoritized social groups the contributors provide a comprehensive examination of how textbooks the most dominant cultural force in which corporations and political leaders impact the schooling curricula shape students thoughts and behavior perpetuate power in dominant groups and trivialize social groups who are oppressed on the structural axes of race class gender sexuality and disability several contributors also generate critical insight in how power shapes the production of textbooks and evaluate whether textbooks still perpetuate dominant western narratives that normalize and privilege patriotism militarism consumerism white supremacy heterosexism rugged individualism technology and a positivistic conception of the world finally the book highlights several textbooks that challenge readers to rethink their stereotypical views of the other to reflect upon the constitutive forces causing oppression in schools and in the wider society and to reflect upon how to challenge corporate and political dominance over knowledge production
