new york times bestseller from the bestselling author of house of leaves comes a magisterial novel about two friends determined to rescue a pair of horses set for slaughter this is an amazing work of fiction i absolutely loved it at the heart you ll find a blood drenched story of pursuit and two brave and resourceful children but there s so much more i immersed myself have never read anything like it stephen king hard to figure how so much awful horror could ve started out with just them two horses and not a one yet named while folks still like to focus on the crimes that shocked the small city of orvop utah back in the fall of 1982 not to mention the trials that followed far more remember the adventure that took place beyond municipal lines for sure no one expected the dead to rise but they did no one expected the mountain to fall either but it did no one expected an act of courage so great and likewise so appalling that it still staggers the heart and mind of anyone who knows anything about the katanogos massif to say nothing of pillars meadow as one orvop high school teacher described that extraordinary feat just days before she died fer sure no one expected kalin march to look old porch in the eye and tell him you get what you deserve when you ride with cowards

we all have fears but if we can t face the small ones how will we face the big ones kai is afraid to fly a little blue kite but kai is also very very brave and overcoming this small fear will lead him on a great adventure remember all great adventures start with one little moment you know the one it s like a gentle breeze whispering in your ear what you already know by heart not even the sky is the limit the only other thing you might want to know about this book is that there are at least three ways to read it the first way takes only a few minutes just follow the rainbow colored words the second takes only a little bit longer just follow the words haloed with blue and red and the rainbow words too for the third way just start at the beginning
