if you could live forever would you want to both a fascinating look at the history of our strive for immortality and an investigation into whether living forever is really all it s cracked up to be a fascinating work of popular philosophy and history that both enlightens and entertains stephen cave investigates whether it just might be possible to live forever and whether we should want to he also makes a powerful argument that it s our very preoccupation with defying mortality that drives civilization central to this book is the metaphor of a mountaintop where one can find the immortals since the dawn of humanity everyone whether they know it or not has been trying to climb that mountain but there are only four paths up its treacherous slope and there have only ever been four paths throughout history people have wagered everything on their choice of the correct path and fought wars against those who ve chosen differently in drawing back the curtain on what compels humans to keep on keeping on cave engages the reader in a number of mind bending thought experiments he teases out the implications of each immortality gambit asking for example how long a person would live if they did manage to acquire a perfectly disease free body or what would happen if a super being tried to round up the atomic constituents of all who ve died in order to resurrect them or what our loved ones would really be doing in heaven if it does exist we re confronted with a series of brain rattling questions what would happen if tomorrow humanity discovered that there is no life but this one would people continue to please their boss vie for the title of year s best salesman would three hundred year projects still get started if the four paths up the mount of the immortals lead nowhere if there is no getting up to the summit is there still reason to live and can civilization survive immortality is a deeply satisfying book as optimistic about the human condition as it is insightful about the true arc of history includes 17 rules to live by the time has come when a line should be drawn between the church and the world and every christian should give his heart and life completely to christ if it never troubles a man s conscience to spend a great deal of his time in questionable places of amusement and to take his family into places where there are degraded people for their own pleasure s sake if he drives like jehu all the week to make a dollar and moves like a snail toward spiritual things on the sabbath i believe that man is following the flesh the divine nature is not in him he is not walking after the spirit but after the flesh oh god hates a sham it means a good deal to be a christian and if a person is going to be a christian let him put off the old man with all his deeds and put on the new man with the righteousness of christ that is the kind of christians we need at the present time for to be carnally minded is death but to be spiritually minded is life and peace
