you re mine in the next world right might come sooner than you think murchison s fragment brings together nineteen plays mostly for stage but with three for radio that range from a deceptively frivolous if macabre 10 minute monologue to an uncompromising 45 minute study of imprisonment and torture based upon a real life situation in between are tales of ambition greed and human frailty here and there touching upon horror and the supernatural throughout we encounter flawed individuals getting their comeuppance or just as likely and unjustly escaping it elsewhere others less deserving succumb to forces beyond their control some of the plays are unambiguously and intentionally serious one for example follows the adventures of a boy within the autistic spectrum determined to do a good deed but failing to realise the cost of his actions another concerns reparations to kenyans who suffered under the colonial administration during the mau mau insurgency a third offers a challenging and doubtless contentious interpretation of a new testament episode the resurrection of jesus other plays may appear lighter even humorous although darker threads almost always run through them murchison s fragment which lends its title to the collection is a story of lost opportunity set in london and east africa here the protagonist unwisely allows lust to overcome reason with far reaching consequences the collection ends with a romantic love story in which a formidable barrier to a fulfilling relationship unexpectedly falls away for each play a synopsis is provided with additional notes where there is background interest
