this book charts ideas from European intellectuals mostly from Great Britain, France, Germany, and Italy put forward to solve the problem of war during the first half of the twentieth century. A period that began with the Anglo-Boer War and ended with the explosion of atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Such ideas do not belong to a homogeneous tradition of thought but can be understood as a unique discourse that takes different characteristics according to the point of view of each author and of the specific historical situation.
