provoked global condemnation and became a seminal marker in the discourse on cultural heritage it prompted an urgent reassessment of how cultural property could be protected in times of conflict and led to a more definitive recognition in international humanitarian law that destruction of a people's cultural heritage is an aspect of genocide yet surprisingly little has been published on the subject this wide ranging book provides the first comprehensive overview and critical analysis of the destruction of bosnia herzegovina's cultural heritage and its far reaching impact scrutinizing the responses of the international community during the war including bodies like unesco and the council of europe the volume also analyses how after the conflict ended external agendas impinged on heritage reconstruction to the detriment of the broader peace process and refugee return it assesses implementation of annex 8 of the dayton peace agreement a unique attempt to address the devastation to cultural heritage and examines the treatment of war crimes involving cultural property at the international criminal tribunal for the former yugoslavia icty with numerous case studies and plentiful illustrations this important volume considers questions which have moved to the foreground with the inclusion of cultural heritage preservation in discussions of the right to culture in human rights discourse and as a vital element of post conflict and development aid an expert guide to the present day cultural life of croatia and how it has been influenced by the nation's tumultuous past culture and customs of croatia offers an expert insider's look at a balkan nation which for the first time since the 12th century is free to draw on its own traditions to determine its political philosophical and cultural identity culture and customs of croatia provides a comprehensive overview of croatian art and culture with an emphasis on the historical factors contributing to contemporary croatian life an in depth exploration of the country's past lays the groundwork for a discussion of a number of current issues including progress towards eu membership the expanding role of the catholic church preservation of the country's world heritage sites the growing popularity of the nation's adriatic coastline as a beach vacation destination and the complex still reverberating legacy of the former yugoslavia following the fall of the soviet union in 1989 the borders hitherto separating greek culture and society from its contiguous balkan polities came down and greeks had to reorient themselves toward their immediate neighbors and redefine their place within europe and the new more fluid global order projecting the political foresight and mustering the modernization policies to succeed in such an undertaking turned out to be no small feat especially as the regional conflicts that had lain dormant during the cold war were revived synthesizing the cultural political and historical into a sophisticated interdisciplinary analysis this innovative study untangles the prolonged historical moment in which greece and europe were effectively held hostage to events in the balkans just at the time when both hoped to serve as the region s welcoming hosts following the collapse of the former yugoslavia croatian was declared to be a separate language distinct from serbian and linguistic issues became highly politicized this book examines the changing status and norms of the croatian language and its relationship to croatian national identity focusing on the period after croatian independence global christianity in local context and muslim encounter is a unique collection of essays in honour of david a kerr well known for his contributions in the areas of christian muslim dialogue ecumenical studies and missions with contributions from recognized experts in these fields the book provides a platform for examining contemporary christian muslim relations and critical issues facing twenty first century christianity volume 2 is a veritable who s who of renowned christian and muslim scholars that shaped the course of christian muslim dialogue over the last half century their contributions in this volume address contemporary and pivotal issues facing christians and muslims today such as islamophobia islamism religious freedom inter religious challenges and urbanism mission and economic globalisation suffering and social responsibility and others cultural genocide is the systematic destruction of traditions values language and other elements that make one group of people distinct from another cultural genocide remains a recurrent topic appearing not only in the form of wide ranging claims about the commission of cultural genocide in diverse contexts but also in the legal sphere as exemplified by the discussions before the international criminal tribunal for the former yugoslavia and also the drafting of the un declaration on the rights of indigenous peoples these discussions have however displayed the lack of a uniform understanding of the concept of cultural genocide and thus of the role that international law is expected to fulfil in this regard the concept of cultural genocide an international law perspective details how international law has approached the core idea underlying the concept of cultural genocide and how this framework can be strengthened and fostered it traces developments from the early conceptualisation of cultural genocide to the contemporary question of its reparation through this journey the book discusses the evolution of various branches of international law in relation to both cultural protection and cultural destruction in light of a number of legal cases in which either the concept of cultural genocide or the idea of cultural destruction has been discussed such cases include the destruction of cultural and religious heritage in bosnia and herzegovina the forced removals of aboriginal children in australia and canada and the case law of the inter american court of human rights in relation to indigenous and tribal groups cultural destruction antiziganism is a widespread phenomenon in all european societies poor or rich postcommunist or traditional north or south with lean or thick welfare systems all european societies demonstrate antiziganist prejudice all across europe romanis are among the poorest most destitute and most excluded communities widespread prejudice and stereotypical representations of romani individuals limit their chances for participation in democratic decision making processes and their access to services unable to counteract majority stereotypes systematically more often than not they remain on the fringes of society this edited volume asks where these stereotypes and prejudices come from why they are ubiquitous to all societies and how pertinent their impact on antiziganist attitudes found in european societies really is
