fair winds and fine cruising is author chris doyle s wish for readers of this popular newly updated guide to the 10 island nations of this enchanting caribbean chain doyle s background in research makes this volume rich in practical details yet its tone is conversational his is also an intimate knowledge gathered from more than 20 years of live aboard caribbean cruising on his carib 41 helos a former charterboat the leewards are a cultural and topographic mix and doyle addresses them by geographical grouping the renaissance islands st martin st barts and anguilla an economically strong bareboating enclave offer short cruising passages and a wide choice of anchorages the islands that brush the clouds a volcanic chain strung between saba and montserrat present cruisers with a variety of channels and terrain most broadly strewn are the islands of mountains and mangroves a patchwork chiefly of rugged rainforest and exotic fauna guarded in spots by spectacular reefs the southern leewards in particular have cried for reliable charting doyle provides aid throughout using gps coordinates a trove of charts and color maps all are cross referenced with the newly released caribbean yachting charts exactly detailed and available through cruising guide publications spectacular photographs add a visual feast onshore accommodations transportation communications entertainment and provisioning are also addressed throughout the guide and in an exhaustive directory by island and service type in this engaging book the oft told narrative of sir walter raleigh is blown apart through the chance discovery of hitherto neglected correspondence in a swedish archive in place of a deceitful and scheming raleigh sellin paints a picture of man executed on trumped up charges by those hoping to profit from the very gold mine they claimed he had invented it will be of interest not only to specialists of the period but to anyone with a sense of the romance of history anthony lockwoods story is at the heart of the georgian navy though the man himself has never taken centre stage in its history his naval career described by himself as twenty five years incessant peregrination followed a somewhat erratic course but almost exactly spanned the period of the french wars and the war of 1812 lockwood was commended for bravery in action against the french was present at the spithead mutiny shipwrecked and imprisoned in france appointed master attendant of the naval yard at bridgetown barbados during the year the slave trade was abolished and served as an hydrographer before beginning his three year marine survey of nova scotia and the bay of fundy against the odds he managed to finesse a treasury appointment as surveyor general of new brunswick and became the right hand man of the governor general smyth deeply ingrained in his character however was a democratic determination that was out of step with the authoritarian character of the navy and the aristocratic one of new brunswick his expectation of social justice verged on madness and when he finally succumbed to lunacy it was in the defence of democracy the turbulence of the times inspired lockwood to stage a one man coup d'etat which ended with him being jailed and shipped back to london to live out his days as a pensioner and mental patient truly a dramatic rise and a tragic fall
