a big mistake a quest for revenge now hell has a new bounty hunter hell is the ultimate prison and only the most powerful the most cunning can escape eternal damnation one being is in charge of dragging escaped souls back to the infernal realm he is called the beast and he has just died christopher sawyer is just an average college kid concerned with doing well in school and someday marrying his high school sweetheart he never asked to inherit the office of the beast or take up the mantle of the hunter of lost souls he never asked for his safe comfortable world to be shattered and his family taken from him and to make matters worse it was all a mistake now christopher must master the power of hell inside of him if he hopes to survive this new reality and if he can get a little revenge in the process all the better book and blade is the first book in the urban fantasy series hand of perdition if you like fast paced urban fantasy vile demons and dark supernatural forces then you will love this new series by erik lynd originally published in 1942 this book was very different from anything else written about the psychology of hands the author had worked amongst apes and monkeys at the zoo patients in what at the time were called mental hospitals and amongst all manner of men women and children the results of her research are found here where she looks at how the hands link to the brain and ultimately our personality a pioneer in this field the author continued her research in this area for a number of years a fascinating glimpse into early personality psychology pastor brian zahnd began to question the theology of a wrathful god who delights in punishing sinners and has started to explore the real nature of jesus and his father the book isn't only an interesting look at the context of some modern theological ideas it also offers some profound insight into god's love and eternal plan relevant magazine named one of the top 10 books of 2017 god is wrath or god is love in his famous sermon sinners in the hands of an angry god puritan revivalist jonathan edwards shaped predominating american theology with a vision of god as angry violent and retributive three centuries later brian zahnd was both mesmerized and terrified by edwards's wrathful god haunted by fear that crippled his relationship with god zahnd spent years praying for a divine experience of hell what zahnd experienced instead was the father's love revealed perfectly through jesus christ for all prodigal sons and daughters in sinners in the hands of a loving god zahnd asks important questions like is seeing god primarily as wrathful towards sinners true or biblical is fearing god a normal expected behavior and where might the natural implications of this theological framework lead us thoughtfully wrestling with subjects like old testament genocide the crucifixion of jesus eternal punishment in hell and the final judgment in revelation zanhhd maintains that the summit of divine revelation for sinners is not god is wrath but god is love the forms by which a deceased person may be brought to rest are as many as there are causes of death in most societies the disposal of the corpse is accompanied by some form of celebration or ritual which may range from a simple act of deportment in solitude to the engagement of large masses of people in laborious and creative festivities in a funerary context the term ritual may be taken to represent a process that incorporates all the actions performed and thoughts expressed in connection with a dying and dead person from the preparatory pre death stages to the final deposition of the corpse and the post mortem stages of grief and commemoration the contributions presented here are focused not on the examination of different funerary practices their function and meaning but on the changes of such rituals how and when they occurred and how they may be explained based on case studies from a range of geographical regions and from different prehistoric and historical periods a range of key themes are examined concerning belief and ritual body and deposition place performance and commemoration exploring a complex web of practices
