this book brings together papers presented at the 3rd conference of research in economics and management cireg held in morocco in may 2016 with a focus on the challenges of smes and innovative solutions they highlight the contribution of researchers in the fields of business and management with all their micro and macro economic aspects they shed light on the universal scientific vision of the importance of smes with answers relevant to their local context and adapted to their specific national situation the relevance of sme research lies in its heuristic value of analyzing change rather than in constructing a category a particularly useful empirical concept this first volume is focused on economic issues this work the outgrowth of a joint reflection by french and german international lawyers attempts to reconceptualize the doctrine of hierarchy in international law by emphasizing that a clear distinction should be drawn between primary rules which encapsulate precepts for the protection of the basic values of the international community and secondary rules which determine the regime of legal consequences flowing from a breach of such rules of conduct the international history of communication study maps the growth of media and communication studies around the world drawing out transnational flows of ideas institutions publications and people it offers the most comprehensive picture to date of the global history of communication research and education this volume reaches into national and regional areas that have not received much attention in the scholarship until now including asia latin america africa and the middle east alongside europe and north america it also covers communication study outside of academic settings in international organizations like unesco and among commercial and civic groups it moves beyond the traditional canon to cover work by forgotten figures including women scholars in the field and those outside of the united states and europe and it situates them all within the broader geopolitical institutional and intellectual landscapes that have shaped communication study globally intended for scholars and graduate students in communication media studies and journalism this volume pushes the history of communication study in new directions by taking an aggressively international and comparative perspective on the historiography of the field methodologically and conceptually the volume breaks new ground in bringing comparative transnational and global frames to bear and puts under the spotlight what has heretofore only lingered in the penumbra of the history of communication study
