separer l'enseignement/apprentissage de la langue étrangère de son contexte socio-culturel signifierait la déformer, la priver de son rôle de vecteur de l'identité, des valeurs de ses locuteurs. Apprendre une langue étrangère, c'est accéder à une nouvelle civilisation avec tout ce qu'elle implique mais c'est surtout appréhender les marques implicites des relations sociales des gens qui la parlent enseigner conjointement langue et culture est primordial pour les sociétés qui sont ouvertes à l'immigration tel le Québec pour que les nouveaux arrivants puissent s'intégrer à la vie collective du pays d'accueil il est indispensable qu'ils apprennent la langue de la majorité linguistique toutefois il est nécessaire aussi de leur faire comprendre que la langue va au-delà du simple sens des mots elle est révélatrice d'attitude et de comportements dont l'adoption est le gage pour une intégration réussie ce livre s'adresse à tous ceux qui ont à cœur la propagation de la langue française dans leurs pays

Lapointe in their introduction to this volume is likely to be to the twenty-first century what class was to the twentieth that is a major source of tension and political conflict however ethnicity is also increasingly likely to be a source of inspiration and diversification within society because of the rapidly developing importance of ethnicity and culture in Canada the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council and the Ministry of Multiculturalism and Citizenship undertook in 1991 a project to review research on the subject this volume in nineteen chapters is the record of the findings papers cover such topics as demography political philosophy history anthropology sociology media studies literature language learning education and ethnic and multicultural attitudes looking back to the Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism mandated in 1963 the editors point out that the terminology has changed radically and that the evolution from biculturalism to multiculturalism has clarified not only the political agenda but the research agenda as well an insistent theme recurs throughout this volume multiculturalism is taken increasingly as being a characteristic of Canadian society as a whole rather than a concept focused exclusively on new Canadians while the Canadian population has always been ethnically diverse only recently has the diversity been systematically analysed ethnic and multicultural studies are remarkably well developed in Canada the editors conclude however they point out one shortcoming more apparent in some fields than others we often know quite well how the dominant group views a minority but we often lack knowledge of the reverse attitudes and opinions Berry and Lapointe recommend that we replace one-way mirrors with windows preferably open windows book jacket title summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc. all rights reserved
