Melania the Elder and her granddaughter Melania the Younger were major figures in early Christian history, using their wealth, status, and forceful personalities to shape the development of nearly every aspect of the religion we now know as Christianity. This volume examines their influence on late antique Christianity and provides an insightful portrait of their legacies in the modern world, departing from the traditionally patriarchal view. Melania gives a poignant and sometimes surprising account of how the rise of Christian institutions in the Roman Empire shaped our understanding of women's roles in the larger world.

Lavishly illustrated, this book provides a comprehensive exploration of the work of Jean Michel Frank, an important French modernist designer.

Dada: The Collections of the Museum of Modern Art is the first publication devoted exclusively to MoMA's unrivalled collection of Dada works, beginning with a core group acquired on the occasion of the landmark Fantastic Art, Dada and Surrealism exhibition of 1936, enriched in 1953 by a bequest selected by Marcel Duchamp, and steadily augmented over the years. The museum's Dada collection presents the movement in its full international and interdisciplinary scope during its defining years from 1916 through 1924, catalyzed by the major Dada exhibition that appeared in Paris, Washington, D.C., and at the Museum of Modern Art in 2005-6. The book benefits from the latest scholarly thinking, not only as found in the exhibition's catalogues but also in the critical responses to them, as well as in an ambitious series of seminars organized around the show, featuring generously illustrated essays that focus on a selection of the museum's most important Dada works. This publication highlights works in many media, including books, journals, assemblages, collages, drawings, films, paintings, photographs, photomontages, prints, readymades, and reliefs. It also includes a comprehensive catalogue of the museum's Dada holdings, including those in the museum's archives and library, edited by Anne Umland and Adrian Sudhalter, members of the museum's Department of Painting and Sculpture. This book inaugurates an ambitious new series of scholarly catalogues on the museum's collection.
