seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject english language and literature studies literature grade 2 3 language english abstract this term paper is supposed to deal with how love and sex are depicted in brave new world and 1984 and if there are any similarities between them furthermore we will take a brief look at differences and similarities to love and sex in our society what is the attitude towards marriage these days and what is the role of love in all of that after this we will then hopefully be able to identify what love and sex in dystopian fiction means ever since thomas more's utopia love and sex have been a part of dystopian novels in thomas more's times his depictions were ground breaking women were not allowed to marry until they were 18 in the past this was highly unusual since most women married at the age of around 14 furthermore divorce is forbidden which at this point mirrors the time more lived in this clearly influenced all the following writers of dystopian novels they imagine a world that is negatively silhouetted against their own world and since love is a big part of every society it is also a big part in every dystopian society when looking for the most famous dystopian novels on google two that are immediately suggested are brave new world by aldous huxley and 1984 by george orwell both have one thing in common their rather negative and for us rather unusual attitude towards love relationships and sex welcome to the relationship revolution making marriage simple is the accessible essential road map to building a strong marriage in the modern world leading relationship experts harville hendrix and helen lakelly hunt distil into 10 essential truths what they have learned about how to create a successful and satisfying relationship from their counselling and workshops with married couples their own 30 year relationship and decades of research harville and helen have spent their careers helping couples transform their marriages but marriage even for marriage experts is never easy and a number of years ago they found themselves on the brink of divorce harville and helen used their own tried and tested exercises they had coached so many couples through and in doing so saved their marriage written with humour compassion and honesty making marriage simple will give all couples the practical tools they need to foster a rewarding marriage when it first appeared in 1995 the good marriage became a best seller it offers timeless clues to the secret of happy long lasting marriages based on a groundbreaking study of fifty couples who consider themselves happily married psychologist judith wallerstein presents the four basic types of marriage romantic rescue companionate and traditional and identifies nine developmental tasks that must be successfully undertaken in a good marriage separation from the family of origin up and down vicissitudes of early years children balance of work and home dealing with infidelities and more the men and women wallerstein interviewed readily admit that even the best relationship requires hard work and continuing negotiation especially in the midst of societal pressures that can tear marriages apart but they also convey an inspirational message for almost all of them feel that their marriage is their single greatest accomplishment the good marriage explains why and its lively mix of storytelling and analysis will challenge every couple to think in a profoundly different way about the most important relationship in their lives should be required reading for all who are interested in marriage walter menninger should prove a lifesaver for many couples publishers weekly will enrich the sparse literature on happy marriages usa today one of the nice things about the good marriage is its modesty it doesn't pretend to offer a philosophy or even a lecture on marriage it takes no position on the ideologically charged issues of women's marital roles and status equally important it ignores the two most common ways of talking about marriage as a contract
