an eye opening look at the forces that make it harder than ever for the middle class to survive people one of time s best new books to read this summer brilliant a keen elegantly written and scorching account of the american family today through vivid stories sharp analysis and wit quart anatomizes the middle class s fall while also offering solutions and hope barbara ehrenreich author of nickel and dimed families today are squeezed on every side from nearly unaffordable housing education and childcare costs to stagnant wages and the rise of the gig economy for this generation attaining the standard of living their parents managed has become nearly impossible. Alissa Quart, executive editor of the economic hardship reporting project, examines the lives of many middle-class Americans who can now barely afford to raise children through gripping firsthand storytelling. Quart shows how our country has failed its families: her subjects, from professors to lawyers to caregivers to nurses, have been wrung out by a system that doesn't support them and enriches only a tiny elite. Interlacing her own experience with close-up reporting on families that are just getting by, Quart reveals parenthood itself to be financially overwhelming. Except for the wealthiest, she offers real solutions to these problems, including outlining necessary policy shifts as well as detailing the DIY tactics some families are already putting into motion. And she argues for the cultural reevaluation of parenthood and caregiving. Powerfully argued, deeply reported, and ultimately hopeful, Squeezed casts a bright, clarifying light on families struggling to thrive. It will make readers think differently about their lives and those of their neighbors. A profound, sweeping, blistering portrait of hard-working people from all walks of life. Astra Taylor, author of The People's Platform. Quart is a sympathetic listener, getting people to reveal not just the tenuousness of their economic situations but also the turbulence of their emotional lives. We could all use her expert guidance through the maze. New York Times.

This is not a self-help book. It's a book that tells us what not to do, what to remember, and what to forget. From being a mother to lessons learnt from our own mothers, managing money to marriage, coping with pain and anger to taking ownership of our health and growing old. Kaveri Bamzai, first woman editor of one of India's largest newsmagazines, a wife and mother of two boys and two dogs, tells us how to live a guilt-free life with a little help from a host of highly accomplished women. With sparkling advice from Naina Lal Kidwai, Arianna Huffington, Sudha Murty, Smriti Irani, Twinkle Khanna, and Sania Mirza among others, No Regrets is the go-to book as we fumble and stumble through life.

The magic of independence meets the meaning of home in the picture book debut of the #1 bestselling author of Bringing Up Bébé. When Josephine Harris decides that Paris is where she really belongs, all it takes is a quick call on her magical phone to whisk her away. The city of lights has fancy cafés, baguettes under every arm, the Eiffel Tower, and a fabulous new family who can't wait to show her around. The city is a feast for the senses, but each new discovery brings a pang of melancholy. There's something missing here. Could it be the person who loves Josephine's best? Her own mother. From the #1 bestselling author, Pamela Druckerman, comes a whimsically commercial picture that little travellers and little homebodies will love.
