the seventh siam international conference on data mining sdm 2007 continues a series of conferences whose focus is the theory and application of data mining to complex datasets in science engineering biomedicine and the social sciences these datasets challenge our abilities to analyze them because they are large and often noisy sophisticated highperformance and principled analysis techniques and algorithms based on sound statistical foundations are required visualization is often critically important tuning for performance is a significant challenge and the appropriate levels of abstraction to allow end users to exploit sophisticated techniques and understand clearly both the constraints and interpretation of results are still something of an open question
