masterpieces and just happens to do so in the fashion appropriate to the work the day it will make you laugh and cry but in the end will explain why the New York Times thinks Winslow is simply the greatest he crafts every sentence until it beats to a rhythm of its own broken is devastating and brilliant Sydney Morning Herald

Breathtaking Jeremy Clarkson Winslow's masterpiece so far should have a place on every crime fan's bookshelf superb independent on Sunday a brilliant page turning thriller of power and revenge on the front lines of the drug war drug lord Miguel Angel Barrera is head of the Mexican drug federación responsible for millions of dollars worth of cocaine traffic into the US and the torture and murder of those who stand in its way his nephew Adán Barrera is his worthy successor Art Keller is a US government operative so determined to obtain revenge for a murdered colleague that his pursuit of the cartel veers dangerously towards an obsession outside the law in a brutal world filled with striking characters from a high class prostitute to an Irish hitman and a charismatic Catholic priest everyone is in search of some kind of salvation or damnation Don Winslow's masterpiece is not only a page turning thriller but also a rich and compelling novel in the league of James Ellroy or Don DeLillo the cartel the blockbuster sequel to the Power of the Dog is also available

One of the most acclaimed books of the year contains an excerpt from Don Winslow's explosive new novel City on Fire named a Best Book of the Year by Washington Post NPR Financial Times the Guardian Booklist New Statesman Daily Telegraph Irish Times Dallas Morning News Sunday Times New York Post a big sprawling ultimately stunning crime tableau Janet Maslin New York Times you can't ask for more emotionally moving Entertainment Stephen King one of the best thriller writers on the planet Esquire the explosive highly anticipated conclusion to the epic Cartel trilogy from the New York Times bestselling author of the Force What Do You Do When There Are No Borders when the lines you thought existed simply vanish how do you plant your feet to make a stand when you no longer know what side you're on the war has come home for over forty years Art Keller has been on the front lines of America's longest conflict the war on drugs his obsession to defeat the world's most powerful wealthy and lethal kingpin the godfather of the Sinaloa Cartel Adán Barrera has left him bloody and scarred cost him the people he loves even taken a piece of his soul now Keller is elevated to the highest ranks of the DEA only to find that in destroying one monster he has created thirty more that are wreaking even more chaos and suffering in his beloved Mexico but not just there Barrera's final legacy is the heroin epidemic scourging america throwing himself into the gap to stem the deadly flow keller finds himself surrounded by enemies men who want to kill him politicians who want to destroy him and worse the unimaginable an incoming administration that is in bed with the very drug traffickers that keller is trying to bring down art keller is at war with not only the cartels but with his own government and the long fight has taught him more than he ever imagined now he learns the final lesson there are no borders in a story that moves from deserts of mexico to wall street from the slums of guatemala to the marbled corridors of washington d c winslow follows a new generation of narcos the cops who fight them street traffickers addicts politicians money launderers real estate moguls and mere children fleeing the violence for the chance of a life in a new country a shattering tale of vengeance violence corruption and justice this last novel in don winslow's magnificent award winning internationally bestselling trilogy is packed with unforgettable drawn from the headlines scenes shocking in its brutality raw in its humanity the border is an unflinching portrait of modern america a story of and for our time the new york times bestselling second novel in the explosive power of the dog series an action filled look at the drug trade that takes you deep inside a world riddled with corruption betrayal and bloody revenge book two of the power of the dog series it's 2004 adán barrera kingpin of el federación is languishing in a california federal prison ex dea agent art keller passes his days in a monastery having lost everything to his thirty year blood feud with the drug lord then barrera escapes now there's a two million dollar bounty on keller's head and no one else capable of taking barrera down as the carnage of the drug war reaches surreal new heights the two men are locked in a savage struggle that will stretch from the mountains of sinaloa to the shores of veracruz to the halls of power in washington ensnaring countless others in its wake internationally bestselling author don winslow's the cartel is the searing unfiltered epic of the drug war in the twenty first century unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 we have not used ocr optical character recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 in books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy
