Paula is a soul-baring memoir which like a novel of suspense one reads without drawing a breath. The point of departure for these moving pages is a tragic personal experience: in December 1991, Isabel Allende's daughter Paula became gravely ill and shortly thereafter fell into a coma. During months in the hospital, the author began to write the story of her family for her unconscious daughter. In the telling, bizarre ancestors appear before our eyes; we hear both delightful and bitter childhood memories, amazing anecdotes of youthful years, the most intimate secrets passed along in whispers. Chile, Allende's native land, comes alive as well with the turbulent history of the military coup of 1973, the ensuing dictatorship, and her family's years of exile. As an exorcism of death in these pages, Isabel Allende explores the past and questions the gods.

told in the voice of Isabel Allende's beloved character Eva Luna, a distinctive, powerful, and haunting Los Angeles Times collection of short fiction by one of the most iconic and acclaimed writers of our time. Eva Luna is a young woman whose powers as a storyteller bring her friendship and love. Lying in bed with her European lover, refugee and journalist Rolf Carlé, Eva answers his request for a story you have never told anyone before. With these twenty-three samples of her vibrant artistry, interweaving the real and the magical, she explores love, vengeance, compassion, and the strengths of women, creating a world that is at once poignantly familiar and intriguingly new. Rendered in her sumptuously imagined, uniquely magical style, the stories of Eva Luna are the cornerstone of Allende's work. This treasure trove of brilliantly crafted stories is a superb example of a writer working at the height of her powers.
