this book is the first in depth examination of the 25 million americans with the most intense hatred of president obama arguably the most republican friendly of recent democratic presidents and what the mindsets of these obama haters teach us about race and ethnicity in america today despite the fact that president obama was raised by a white mother and white grandparents and has two degrees from ivy league universities he has still been subject to intense racial hatred from a large number of americans even after obama s presidency the obama haters and their xenophobia islamophobia and racism will continue to shape american politics america is certainly not post racial argues author algernon austin phd a noted sociologist and author on racial issues who consults on race politics and economics in washington dc in this book he uses the obama haters as an appropriate jumping off point to consider what strategies might begin to reduce racial animosity in the united states a real concern considering that demographic trends are likely to exacerbate and escalate race based hatred in our society austin sets the stage for the discussion by establishing that president obama is hardly liberal in the eyes of liberal political activists raising the question of why obama is so intensely hated by some conservatives he then compares the views of the obama haters estimated to be some 25 million strong with conservatives moderates and liberals who are not obama haters the author shows how the obama haters are distinctly more xenophobic islamophobic and racist than political conservatives who are not obama haters underscoring the fact that the obama haters are motivated by more than just conservatism
