research articles in literacy education the readings are contextualized with introductions and discussion questions by the editors of the text the text will help instructors to easily integrate the latest research into their course in a meaningful way this reader with edited content and contextualizing material makes the latest research more interesting and accessible to the students of literacy education this book discusses aspects of the theory and practice of qualitative research in the specific context of language and literacy education it addresses epistemological perspectives methodological problems and practical considerations related to research involvements in areas of language education and literacy studies rather than generic issues of other fields of social sciences the volume starts with theoretical considerations in the first part and raises some epistemological and theoretical concerns that are rarely debated in the specific context of research on language and literacy teaching the second part methodological approaches explores issues of the design and implementation of language and literacy education research within the framework of some of the major established qualitative research traditions finally the part on research in action discusses practical aspects of a few actual instances of qualitative research on language and literacy education in different contexts this volume explores teacher and librarian partnerships in literacy education showing that such partnerships are essential to literacy education in 21st century teacher and librarian partnerships contribute significantly to the realization of the democratic mandate of the teaching and library profession partnerships respond to the educational challenges characterized by an unprecedented pace of knowledge development digitalization globalization and extensive transnational migration the contributors reconceptualize literacy education based on teacher and librarian partnerships studies from sweden norway and the u k analyze such partnerships as sociocultural and intercultural practices documenting ways in which teacher and librarian partnerships in literacy education enhance reading literacy learning empowerment and social justice the authors treat literacies as social practices rather than as an autonomous skill working with interdisciplinary perspectives that draw on educational research new literacy studies library and information science and interprofessional studies partnerships facilitate reading for pleasure and reading engagement in work with school subjects and curriculum goals irrespective of socio economic or cultural background or gender the partnerships facilitate work with multimodal literacies and inquiry based learning both of which are essential in the 21st century equally important the contributors show that the partnerships foster work with the multiple literacies of students and communities and students attachment to the public and school library the contributors also analyze tensions and contradictions in literacy education and in school library policy and practice and attempts to deal with these challenges teacher and librarian partnerships in literacy education in the 21st century brings together leading scholars in educational research and literacy studies including brian v street teresa cremin joan swann and joron pihl the volume addresses scholars and is relevant for students teachers librarians and politicians this volume brings together diverse theoretical reflections and practices of community engaged scholarship in order to stimulate critical discussion deepen theory and invite critical practice it is an international trend that higher education institutions and agencies are encouraging and promoting community engagement at the same time there is recognition of a lack of consistent definitions and understandings of what it is they are promoting as a counterweight to the dominance of pragmatic and technical discussions in the literature on engaged scholarship the chapters in this book shift the discourse to ask foundational questions that emphasize the political nature of engagement recognizing that acts of engagement are never neutral the authors in this book explore how engaged scholarship requires decision making that is inherently grounded in values beliefs and interpretations of what is and what ought to be alongside complex global and local social movements rising to address issues for example climate change or the global financial collapse and the uneven consequences of these globalized problems we see corresponding concerns expressed about the limited participation by excluded silenced and invisibilized people throughout the world how can engaged scholarship be mobilized and who will it serve within such contexts with contributions covering such diverse topics as a non binary approach to engagement citizenship of knowledge university contexts and corporatization stranger pedagogies and anti foundational approaches to service learning contemporary revolutionary movements in the arab world and transforming higher education through africanist onto epistemologies this volume is poised to open the door to a deeper understanding of engaged scholarship
